COLLEGE DRAFT CHANGE SET

Students To Be Judged By Tests, Rank In Class

Washington (AP) — The Selective Service System announced Friday it is returning to the use of a testing system and class standing as guides for local draft boards in granting college student deferments.

Lt. Gen. Lewis Hershey, Selective Service director, said details of the guidelines will be issued in the near future.

Hershey said the procedure affects high school seniors and college students and will be effective for the next college year.

After Consultation

He said he reached his decision after consultation with other government agencies and leading educational associations.

Hershey said the criteria will be similar to those used during the Korean conflict, which included test score or class standing.

He said negotiations have been initiated with testing agencies. The student certificate which schools submit to local boards to reflect student status is being revised to provide class standing.

Hershey said a public an- details of the advisory criteria will be made as soon as they are established.

Draft calls have climbed steadily in recent months, due to the demands of the war in Viet Nam. Recent calls have matched the levels of the Korean War.

1.8 Million Deferred

There are about 1.8 million college students holding educational deferments currently in class 2-S.

Under the old criteria system, which was in effect prior to 1964, local boards could take into consideration the grade of a student on the college qualification test or the class standing he maintained in college, or both.

However, under law local boards may not be required to base their decisions solely on such data.

A passing test score under the old system was 70 for a student to be considered for deferment for a regular college course and 80 for a graduate student, except that a grade of 70 was acceptable for graduate students in the healing arts.

Hundreds Of Lincoln Students Will Be Affected By Switch

Hundreds of students attending institutions in Lincoln apparently will be affected by the change in draft regulations covering exemptions for college students.

At the University of Nebraska, more than a quarter of the 10,000 male students would be affected by the change in the rules if Korean conflict levels are used.

However, some of the more than 2,500 men students ranking too low in their classes might qualify for exemptions under the test procedure, and others would be exempt for other reasons, such as marriage and parenthood.

At Nebraska Wesleyan University Dean of Men Milton Evans said there are some 700 men students—about 250 freshmen, 150 sophomores and 125 juniors.

Thus an estimated 200 students would fall below the exemption rank in their class—about 125 freshmen, 50 sophomores and 30 juniors. Test results and other reasons could well exempt some of these, however.

Union College students would also be affected.

Statistics On Job Corps Tell Little About Boys

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of three articles about a Texas Job Corps which replaced an air base.)

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The average Job Corpsman is 17½ years old.

He has finished the 8th grade, but he has less than a 6th grade reading level.

He comes from a family of six, which lives in crowded, sub-standard housing. His parents are either unemployed or hold unskilled jobs.

The average Corpsman has been out of school 11 months when he enters a Job Corps training center.

To gain entry, a youth must be 16 through 21, out of school and unemployed. He applies for admission at his local state employment agency.

Must Show Need

The applicant must show a background of need. He must have a minimum educational achievement level of the 5th grade, and meet social and physical requirements.

Less than 5% of all Corpsmen have had any brush with the law, and that figure is the national average for their age group.

The Corpsman grosses $30 a month. An additional $50 a month is laid aside as a terminal leave bonus. He may allot up to half of that amount to a dependent, and the government will match it.

Corpsmen receive food and lodging at no cost and they are issued basic work clothing. After six weeks in the program, they are entitled to a $75 clothing allowance.

The Job Corps provides a two-year maximum training program, but it is estimated that the average student will be employable after one year or less.

Choice of 39

At the Camp Gary urban Job Corps training center near San Marcos, Tex., Corpsmen have a choice of 39 vocational courses in the broad fields of industrial services, heavy mechanics, business, automotive mechanics, industrial repair, food service and medical service.

The Gary Corpsman receives academic training in four subjects: citizenship, communication skills, science and mathematics.

In addition, he receives physical education, guidance and counseling.

The schedule for the average Corpsman at Gary: up at 6 a.m., breakfast, academic classes from 8 to 11 a.m., physical education from 11 to noon, lunch, vocational training from 1 to 4 p.m. Free time begins at 4 p.m.

Gary Corpsmen must work a minimum of five hours a week in the operation and maintenance of the center. Opportunities are also available for on-the-job training.

At Gary, Corpsmen are entitled to one routine pass off the base each week, either on Friday, Saturday or Sunday.

Must Return

Bus transportation is provided to San Marcos, San Antonio and Austin, but the Corpsman must return to the base the same evening.

Upon invitation, Corpsmen are permitted to visit friends in their homes for an evening or overnight.

Special merit passes may be earned to visit off campus on week nights. Passes may be revoked for disciplinary reasons.

At Gary, 20 men share a dormitory in former military barracks. A dorm manager, usually a student at Southwest Texas State College, is assigned to each building.

Special U.S. deputy marshals and an unarmed security force maintain order.

There are Corpsmen at Gary from all 50 states, and the dropout rate hovers between 28% and 30%, but it is falling, according to Mrs. Virginia Gilbert, public information coordinator.

(At Atterbury, the rate is 33% to 35% and dropping. Over the past four months, the rate is less than 20%, according to James McManus, director of public affairs.)

Procedures Disorganized

Disorganized early screening procedures which led to badly informed Job Corps applicants is a major reason for the high early dropout rate. A 20% to 25% rate would be comparable to the national dropout rate for high school students.

Those are the facts and figures on the Job Corpsman, but they don't tell you much about the boy himself.

They don't tell you about the 150 Gary Corpsmen who volunteered to search Blanco River bottomland last Dec. 8 for a missing 13-year-old mentally retarded girl.

("Without them, Judy still might be out there, possibly dead from loss of blood or from exposure," San Marcos Police Chief Wayman Dial said.)

They don't tell you about the volunteer Corspmen who assisted the Goodwill Industries in Austin and the Salvation Army in San Antonio, and who deposited nickels, dimes and quarters in dining hall fruit jars at Gary to help the needy of San Marcos last Christmas.

Occasional 'Bad Egg'

On the other hand, they don't tell you either about the occasional "bad egg," the troublemaker, or the one per cent who were arrested by San Marcos police last year.

Job Corps Pendulum Swings Toward What Lincoln Wants

The pendulum continues to swing in the matter of a Job Corps center for Lincoln, currently in favor of the city and what it wants.

Lincoln city officials turned down a reported chance to have a Job Corps at the Lincoln Air Force Base sponsored by Sperry-Rand Corp. Instead, officials stood firm behind a center sponsored by Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha and the University of Nebraska.

Home from Congress over the weekend, Rep Clair Callan of Odell has stated that it appears at this time that Lincoln has "a very good chance" of getting a center under Northern and University sponsorship.

A Job Corps official from Washington, D.C., is expected in Lincoln within the next few days to visit with city officials on the subject.

In addition to sponsorship, city officials have adopted a hard attitude in favor of government surrender of its lease of all base property to Lincoln. It is still unknown whether the city would accept even the Northern-University Job Corps without obtaining the land rights it wants.

A center under any sponsorship at the base is expected to involve an annual payroll of up to $10 million, a student enrollment of up to 2,000 and a faculty and administration of up to 1,000.

Flames Destroy Home

Volunteer firemen from the southwest and southeast districts waged a hopeless battle Friday night against flames which totally consumed the residence of Ed Hornung. The house is located about ¾ mile west of the Yankee Hill School.

It was at first feared that the two Hornung children might still be in the house. They were later located however. Authorities were still trying to locate the parents early Saturday.

Neighbors noticed smoke coming from the house about 8:45 p.m. and notified the Lincoln Fire Dept.

The first volunteers to arrive had to force entry into the building by breaking windows. One fireman stated that as they began to fight the blaze through the windows, it was evident that the house was already completely gutted.

The second truck arrived about 15 minutes after the first and both fought the flames for approximately an hour before being called away from the weakened structure as a precautionary measure.

Subzero Cold Brings Misery To 20 States

From Press Reports

Residents of 20 Northern states between the Rockies and the Atlantic wrestled with discomforts, inconveniences and hardships of subzero cold Friday, while a new mild winter storm swirled out of the Southwest, thrashing its way to the Middle Mississippi Valley.

A gas line break left hundreds of families in 10 northeastern Nebraska communities without heat in 9-below-zero cold. Power failures cut off electricity to thousands of homes in Chicago suburbs.

Schools closed in hundreds of frost-bitten communities in the Midwest and East. The plummeting mercury toppled records in many cities.

At Least 18 Dead

Since a wintry blast swept into the South this week, the weather was blamed for at least 18 deaths across the nation. North Carolina and Virginia counted five each. Indiana and Michigan two each, and Wisconsin, Texas, South Carolina and Georgia one each.

At Muncie, Ind., a man froze to death in the snow outside his home and another succumbed to a heart attack blamed on overexertion in the snow.

43 Below Is Record

The keenest cold was in northern Minnesota. Already the most severe of the winter, it set modern all time records with 43 below zero at International Falls where the snow cover stands at 32 inches, and 37 below in the Duluth, Minn.-Superior, Wis. region.

N.Y. Transit Union Leader Quill Dies Of Heart Attack

New York (AP) — Michael J. Quill, the colorful Irish immigrant who tied New York up for the first 12 days of the new year with an unprecedented city-wide transit strike, died Friday. He was 60.

Quill

Quill emerged from the subway tunnels and the change booths 31 years ago to help found the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union, which unionized the city's bus and subway employes. He was the union's first and only president.

One of his personal physicians, Dr. William D. Weiss, attributed Quill's death at his 15 East 72nd Street home to an apparent heart attack. It was the latest in a series of cardiac blows that had eroded the union leader's ample roly-poly frame but failed to put rein to his tart tongue.

Invective

Prior to the Jan. 1 strike, Quill loosed some of his choicest invective on the city's new Republican mayor, John V. Lindsay, whose name he deliberately mispronounced and whom he labeled a "Pipsqueak." After the strike, however, Quill made conciliatory remarks toward Lindsay.

In a statement, Lindsay said:

"Michael Quill's death marks the end of an era. He was a man who was very much a part of New York. My sympathy goes to his wife and family."

Lindsay's predecessor, Robert F. Wagner, the Democratic mayor who left office shortly before the strike got under way, said:

"It was a shock to hear the news of Mike Quill's death . . . Although I had skirmishes and battles with him in labor negotiations, he was always a man of his word."

Deals Denied

Wagner and Quill had been publicly pictured as having a back door relationship whereby the TWU gained a modicum of its demands at contract time and the former mayor kept the city free of subway tieup during his 12 years in office. Wagner has denied, however, that there was any under-the-table dealing between his administration and Quill.

Quill went to city prison Jan. 4, three days after the transit tieup began, for violating an anti-strike injunction that had forbade a strike of his 34,400 city subway and bus employes.

He was moved from the jail to a hospital later the same day, with disagreement about whether he had suffered a heart attack.

Central Boston Blast Kills 9

Boston (AP)—A massive explosion and fire in downtown Boston Friday night wrecked two hotels, killed at least nine persons and injured more than 50 others.

Firemen and police searched the wreckage more than three hours after the blast for other possible victims.

"The explosion lifted up the floor of a cocktail lounge and dumped it right down in there," district fire chief William Terrenzi said.

A spokesman at Boston City Hospital said several of the bodies "were so badly charred it probably will take a good while to identify them.

The district fire chief said there was no way of knowing what caused the explosion, but "it was quite an intensive blast."

Witnesses said flames came up through sewer openings and manhole covers for more than an hour after the explosion.

Plymouth, Paramount

The explosion sent flames whipping through the Plymouth and Paramount Hotels, next door to each other on Boylston Street, near Washington Street.

Fire officials said the blast also blew out windows in at least a dozen large buildings near the busy intersection about midway between Boston's major shopping district and the theatrical center.

An off-duty policeman who witnessed the blast said, "It will be a miracle if anyone in the Gilded Cage got out."

The Gilded Cage is a cocktail lounge on the street floor of the Plymouth Hotel. More than 15 persons were in it.

One youth said, "I just stepped off the sidewalk and two manhole covers went up. Then I saw two cars tip over."

Five Alarms

Some 20 ambulances from several Boston hospitals were called to the scene when five alarms were sounded in quick succession.

In addition to the two hotels, two barrooms were wrecked. The blast ripped a huge hole on Boylston Street in front of one of the hotels.

Within 15 minutes after the explosion about 5:45 p.m. CST, flames could be seen shooting out of sixth floor windows of the hotels. Both the Plymouth and the Paramount Hotels are about 10 stories high.

Washington (AP) — The Selective Service System announced Friday it is returning to the use of a testing system and class standing as guides for local draft boards in granting college student deferments.

A spokesman at Boston City Hospital said several of the bodies "were so badly charred it probably will take a good while to identify them.

The district fire chief said there was no way of knowing what caused the explosion, but "it was quite an intensive blast."

Witnesses said flames came up through sewer openings and manhole covers for more than an hour after the explosion.

Plymouth, Paramount

The explosion sent flames whipping through the Plymouth and Paramount Hotels, next door to each other on Boylston Street, near Washington Street.

Fire officials said the blast also blew out windows in at least a dozen large buildings near the busy intersection about midway between Boston's major shopping district and 'he theatrical center.

An off-duty policeman who witnessed the blast said, "It will be a miracle if anyone in the Gilded Cage got out."

The Gilded Cage is a cocktail lounge on the street floor of the Plymouth Hotel. More than 15 persons were in it.

One youth said, "I just stepped off the sidewalk and two manhole covers went up. Then I saw two cars tip over."

Five Alarms

Some 20 ambulances from several Boston hospitals were called to the scene when five alarms were sounded in quick succession.

In addition to the two hotels, two barrooms were wrecked. The blast ripped a huge hole on Boylston Street in front of one of the hotels.

Within 15 minutes after the explosion about 5:45 p.m. CST, flames could be seen shooting out of sixth floor windows of the hotels. Both the Plymouth and the Paramount Hotels are about 10 stories high.

Food Mobs Rampage In Southwestern India

New Delhi, India (AP)—Food demonstrations exploded in violence Friday in southwest India and presented Prime Minister Indira Gandhi a full-blown crisis just five days after she took office.

Angry mobs, protesting the lack of rice, went on the rampage in many cities of Kerala state, halting trains and stoning them, ripping up tracks and clashing with police.

"We want rice," the mobs shouted. "Give us rice or shoot us."

Mrs. Gandhi, sworn in Monday, had planned to visit Kerala Friday but postponed the trip on the advice of her aides who suggested she let things cool down a bit. But riots of this type traditionally don't cool down in Kerala until they have resulted in bloodshed and perhaps spread to adjoining south Indian states.

Officers Stoned

The first casualties reported were two police officers stoned and injured by a mob in Trichur, a port city on the old Malabar coast. Farther south along the coast, a mob attacked a newspaper office in Ernakulam. Two policemen, a newspaper employee and several rioters were hurt.

Kerala, a political problem state for years, is one of the first to feel the pinch of India's developing food crisis.

U.S. Wheat Entering

American wheat is flowing into India at an astonishing rate—more than 20,000 tons daily—but that does not help Keralites. They are rice eaters. Mrs. Gandhi has ordered Kerala's rice ration increased from 120 to 140 grams (4.2 to 4.9 ounces) daily for each adult.

But communist leaders, strong in Kerala, said it was too little, too late.

The communists, assisted by all political parties and even dissident members of Mrs. Gandhi's governing Congress Party, whipped up mobs in all the major cities of the tropical state.

Government-owned railroads, a favorite target in any Indian riot, were hit hard. At least four interstate express trains were waylaid.

Train Looted

Police fired three shots in the air near Cannamore when a mob estimated at 10,000 looted a freight train. The mob turned on police but dispersed when rifles went into action.

In the capital of Trivandrum, a mob armed with clubs ran roughshod over a small police detachment guarding the central railroad station, smashed furniture and tried to set fire to the building.

The state governor, A. P. Jain, tried to drive around Trivandrum with his wife to quiet the mobs, but his car was stopped by student demonstrators and he was unable to control the mobs. Neither could police in other parts of the state. A 24-hour general strike ordered by leftist parties and trade unions kept all taxis and buses off the streets and closed down shops.

Standstill

N. Sreekantan Nair, general-secretary of the Revolutionary Socialist Party, told a crowd in Quilon City the government's food policy is driving Kerala's people to the conviction that only bloody revolution can solve their problems.

Barricades of stones and empty oil drums were used to block roads and highways. Bus and car tires were deflated as black flags, signs of mourning and protest in India, waved in many places.

EEOC Mediated Bogalusa Issue

Washington (AP) — In its first six months, the federal commission charged with razing racial and sex bars to employment has been handed a staggering load of complaints.

But it can count some sizable mediation achievements —including one in Bogalusa, La., a Ku Klux Klan stronghold.

"Our budget was set up anticipating 2,000 complaints a year. This was based on the annual rate of the 30 state (fair employment) agencies. In the first six months we've already had more than 3,200 and the curve is up."

FDR Jr. In Charge

The commission, which came into being last July 1 under terms of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, is headed by Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.

In point of size, EEOC still is retty small potatoes among federal agencies with a staff of 153, recently upped from 125. Its budget for the current fiscal year is $2,802,000, but President Johnson has asked $5,070,000 for fiscal 1967.

A breakdown of the first 3,263 complaints shows 1,384 accepted for investigation, 295 referred for action by state or local agencies, 429 returned for additional information, 916 dismissed for lack of jurisdiction and 239 withdrawn or otherwise terminated.

Of the total in the first three categories, 1,492 charged discrimination against Negroes and there were 391 allegations of discrimination because of sex. Religion and other factors brought the other complaints.

Unawareness

Despite the flood of complaints, Edelsberg feels there is general agreement in business and industry that racial and other discrimination in personnel policies must be ended. He said many employers are unaware they are violating the law.

In the past year, Bogalusa has been the scene of violence stemming from civil rights demonstrations and Klan activities. Yet a recent decision by the city's largest employer, the Crown Zellerbach paper mill, could set a pattern for the paper industry across the south.

Edelsberg said Crown Zellerbach officials came to the commission to find out how to merge segregated production lines in the wood-processing room. Crown Zellerbach employs 3,300 of Bogalusa's 25,000 population.

Klan In Union

He added that Bogalusa had many Klansmen, including some officers in the main union at the plant, the AFL-CIO Papermakers Union.

"The jobs . . . were segregated," Edelsberg said. "Generally, the Negro jobs were the dirtiest and the lower paid. We decided they should dovetail the lines with allowance for job security, seniority and other rights."

The company agreed, he said, but only "if we could make it stick and sell it to the white union."

The 300 members of the Negro local agreed immediately, Edelsberg said, and a meeting was scheduled with the 1,400 white union members in New Orleans at the federal building.

Flag And All

"This was planned by Roosevelt to emphasize the federal presence," Edelsberg said. "There was a flag in the room and all the trimmings."

Roosevelt led the discussion, Edelsberg said, and the turning point came when an international union official who had been raising various objections commented, "This is not just a technical matter. Human rights are involved."

Then, Edelsberg said, "We went out while the white union voted and waited as if for a jury verdict. They voted to accept. This came despite the fact that only a few days earlier Klan members had been chosen for the union's executive board."

HEDY LAMARR . . . behind bars awhile.

Hedy Accused Of Shoplifting

Los Angeles (AP)—Beauteous actress Hedy Lamarr, arrested Thursday night and accused of shoplifting at a Wilshire Boulevard department store, said Friday, "It was just a big misunderstanding. I'm willing to forget it."

But the 51-year-old star, who as an exotic screen siren was billed a quarter-century ago as the most beautiful woman in the world, was formally charged Friday with stealing $86 worth of goods.

Police said she had $13 in cash and checks worth $14,000 in her purse when she was arrested in the store's parking lot.

Miss Lamarr, looking calm and poised, held a news conference Friday afternoon after her release on $550 bond.

"No," she replied. "I never have been accused of doing anything like this before and have never done anything. I never stole a thing in my life."

She added, "I went into the May Co., bought a couple of pairs of shoes and a coat, paid for them, then all of a sudden found myself arrested for shoplifting."

She said she doesn't know how the wool dress, and other items that police said were found in her bag, got there.

Earlier, police had quoted her as saying:

"I'm willing to pay for these things. Other stores let me do it."

Miss Lamarr, still slender and handsome at 51, and still possessed of the haunting black eyes and long dark hair that made her famous, is to start work next week in her first film role of consequence in 15 years.

She had a small part in a 1957 film, and has made several television appearances in recent times, but has not had a starring part since "My Favorite Spy" in 1951.

Miss Lamarr plays the mother of a 16-year-old in her new film, "Picture Mommy Dead," and is burned to death. The producer-director, Bert J. Gordon, said after her arrest, "I have no intention of abrogating my agreement with her. I feel there is some explanation."

Congress Asked For Parcel Post Rate Hike

Washington (UPI) — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien asked Congress Friday to increase parcel post rates and to simplify regulations to put the service on a break-even basis.

In letters to House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, O'Brien said fourth class mail service would result in an estimated loss of $107 million this year under present regulations.

He called for an increase of 8 cents per piece in parcel post rates, plus a 12% increase in rates for fourth class catalogs.

O'Brien also asked for simplification of parcel post general size and weight rules. He proposed that a general size and weight limit of 50 pounds, 100 inches be established on parcels between all first class postoffices.

He suggested retaining the present 70-pound limit for small post offices. O'Brien spoke favorably of pre-1952 rules setting limits of 70 pounds and 100 inches on parcels between all post offices and said a return to this would "benefit the department financially."

O'Brien noted that a three-year moratorium on a controversial law requiring the post office to operate parcel post service within four per cent of break-even was nearing an end.

Spain Bans U.S. Nuclear Plane Flights

Madrid, Spain (AP) — Spain Saturday banned all U.S. planes carrying nuclear weapons from flying over its territory in the future.

The new order resulted from the Jan. 17 crash of a B52 carrying nuclear devices. At least one of the weapons has not been found and the search for it intensified Friday in the Mediterranean near the southern city of Almeria.

The B52 was refueling from a tanker when it plunged near Almeria. Tight security covered developments in the bomb search as more boats took part.

Derailed Iowa Train Causes Rescheduling

Ralston, Iowa (AP)—Officials estimated it will be late Saturday before wreckage of 81 derailed Chicago and North Western Railway freight cars could be removed from the scene of a wreck Thursday night.

Other freight trains—an average of 11 a day come through here—were being rerouted until workers laboring in sub-zero temepratures could clear the tracks on the railroad's main line.

Cause of the massive derailment, which tore up more than 700 feet of track, remained unknown.

Cars involved carried lumber, sybeans, barley, canned olives, fuel oil and Bentonite clay. The scene was on the edge of this western Iowa town about 15 miles east of Carroll.

Judges Say Bond Not Denied Seat Because Of Race

Atlanta (AP) — A three-judge federal court dismissed Friday the contention that Rep.-elect Julian Bond, a Negro, was denied his seat in the Georgia House because of his race. But the court withheld a ruling on Bond's move for an order seating him.

"There's nothing that would cause this court to give weight to the basic contention that he was denied his seat because he is a Negro," said Chief Judge Elbert P Tuttle of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, presiding over the panel.

Michael J. Gordon, age 5, of 1315 So. 24th, was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital and admitted for observation after being involved in a vehicle-pedestrian accident Friday noon. The accident occurred at the intersection of 24th and A.

According to the police report, the child dashed into the intersection on A and was struck by a vehicle driven by Carl A. Clark, 70, of 1645 So. 23rd, who was traveling west.

Tax Chief Ordered To Continue With Analysis Of 6 Reappraisals

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The State Board of Equalization Friday directed State Tax Commissioner George Dworak to proceed with his analysis of the professional reappraisals of six Sandhills counties.

Gov. Frank Morrison and Dworak reported "some serious questions" have been raised regarding the appraisals made by the Brandt Appraisal Co. of Scottsbluff for the counties of Arthur, McPherson, Grant, Hooker, Thomas and Blaine.

Morrison said Brandt firm representatives are to appear before Dworak "next Tuesday to explain apparent discrepancies in their (Brandt) appraisal work."

Decision Next Week

Dworak said he would approve or disapprove the reappraisals after the representatives' appearance next week.

Officials said the Brandt firm has reappraisal contracts with 13 counties.

In board action endorsing Dworak's actions, Morrison said, "We want to make sure these reappraisals and those to come are accurate, and we're going to insist on the reappraisal work being as scientific as possible."

Nine counties, including the six Sandhills counties under study, were completed Jan. 1, 1966. Twenty other counties are under reappraisal, of which 13 were commenced before the state's mandatory reappraisal law was passed.

Questioned

The accuracy of the appraisals in the six Sandhills counties was first questioned in early January by the Nebraska Stock Growers Association in a meeting with Dworak and other state equalization board members.

Chase and Perkins Counties also have notified Dworak that their reappraisals have been revoked by the county boards after earlier action approving them.

LBJ CITES RESOLUTION GRANTING HIM POWERS

Washington (AP) — President Johnson, facing a decision on whether to resume the bombing of North Viet Nam, said Friday he is being guided by a 1964 congressional resolution giving him broad powers to decide military matters.

Johnson said peace in Viet Nam is being blocked by a few fanatical leaders who are following a rule-or-ruin strategy. We must not let them succeed, he said.

Johnson cited the 1964 resolution in responding to 15 Senate Democrats who wrote the President saying "we believe you should have our collective udgment before you make your decision."

Th3 President's two-paragraph reply was addressed to Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana, a principal author of the letter signed by the 15 Democrats.

Rusk Cites Resolution

This resolution, which the Senate and House approved by an aggregate vote of 504 to 2, also was cited by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at a session with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Johnson added in his letter that his views remain as stated in a letter he wrote to a group of House members last week. He added:

"Even though it is increasingly clear that we have had only a hostile response to the present pause in bombing North Viet Nam, you can be sure that our unflagging pursuit of peace will continue."

Rusk pointedly reminded Senate questioners that in the 1964 resolution Congress authorized the President to use armed force if necessary in defense of South Viet Nam.

'No Reservations'

And he said the senate "made no reservations" when it ratified the Southeast Asia Treaty (SEATO) which he also contended gives legal backing for present Asian policy.

To senators who expressed alarm at the way things are going, Rusk said the Senate in ratifying the pact didn't say "this doesn't apply if things get tough."

Rusk appeared before the committee in support of the administration's request for an emergency foreign aid supplement of $415 million, primarily for Viet Nam. He ran into tough sledding.

The possibility of an expanded war obviously weighed on the minds of committee members. They kept questioning Rusk until he pleaded an "urgent appointment" at 1 p.m.

Fulbright spearheaded efforts by the committee members to pin down U.S. policy and just how far it goes.

Mott's Body Begins Long Trip Home

Moscow (AP) — The body of Newcomb Mott began its long journey home Friday night, leaving behind a growing Soviet-U.S. dispute over the cloudy circumstances of his death on a Soviet prison train.

The Soviet news agency Novosti circulated a report for foreign consumption only suggesting that Mott may have killed himself because he felt abandoned by the U.S. embassy. It said Mott also had taken pills that might have affected his behavior.

A senior diplomat from the U.S. embassy called on the foreign ministry to complain about "erroneous items" in the news agency account. The diplomat, Minister-Counsellor John C. Guthrie, recalled that more than 30 separate U.S. efforts to secure Mott's release had been turned down by the Russians.

The embassy also asked the foreign ministry for a speedy report as possible on the Soviet investigation into Mott's death. The Russians agreed to supply the report as soon as possible.

Mott, 27, died Jan. 20 on a Soviet train taking him from a Murmansk jail to an unspecified labor camp. He was serving an 18-month sentence after being convicted of entering the Soviet Union illegally.

When the body arrives in Boston Saturday, an autopsy will be performed by Dr. Michael A. Luongo, Suffolk County medical examiner.

His body was flown to London and will be sent Saturday via Boston to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mott, at Sheffield.

'Mary, Mary' Performers Win Opening Night Laughs

By GARY GRAUL
Star Staff Writer

The hilarious lines of Jean Kerr's hit Broadway comedy "Mary, Mary", spiced by the delightful antics of lead performers James Hewitt and Flo Weir, evoked a constant roar of laughter from the first-night audience at the Lincoln Community Playhouse Friday evening.

A touch of topical local humor was contributed by the remark of a book publisher, played by Hewitt, who said, "I'm going to publish a series of sex novels—'Candy' . . . 'Fanny Hill' . . . 'To Kill a Mockingbird' . . ."

Half-drunk with an overdose of sleeping pills, he shouted at a playboy-actor (Delbert Housman) that his ex-wife (Flo) "has got more goodness in her whole body than you have in your little finger."

Able supporting acting came from Donald Williamson, a lawyer who sometimes seemed to have the only sane voice in the insane world of the publisher's apartment, where the entire play took place.

A touch of beauty was provided by vivacious Roma Chenoweth, Hewitt's socialite fiancee, who fell for him because "he was the first man I met who wasn't attracted to me."

A remarkable job was done by scene designer LeRoi Schoonover. Also note-worthy was very effective use of on-stage lighting.

Lincoln theater patrons will find it is well worth braving the sub-zero temperatures to attend one of the remaining productions of "Mary, Mary" on January 29 or February 1-6.

German Air Crash Fatal To 46

Bremen, Germany (AP) — A twin-engine Convair groping through patchy fog for a landing at Bremen airport crashed and exploded in flames late Friday. Police said all the 42 passengers and 4 crewmen were killed.

Seven Italian swimmers, their trainer and an Italian television newsman were among the victims. The swimmers—three women and four men—were to have taken part in an international meet that opened Friday night in Bremen.

Other names on the passenger and crew lists appeared to be German, but no addresses were given.

He called for an increase of 8 cents per piece in parcel post rates, plus a 12% increase in rates for fourth class catalogs.

O'Brien also asked for simplification of parcel post general size and weight rules. He proposed that a general size and weight limit of 50 pounds, 100 inches be established on parcels between all first class postoffices.

He suggested retaining the present 70-pound limit for small post offices. O'Brien spoke favorably of pre-1952 rules setting limits of 70 pounds and 100 inches on parcels between all post offices and said a return to this would "benefit the department financially."

O'Brien noted that a three-year moratorium on a controversial law requiring the post office to operate parcel post service within four per cent of break-even was nearing an end.

Spain Bans U.S. Nuclear Plane Flights

Madrid, Spain (AP) — Spain Saturday banned all U.S. planes carrying nuclear weapons from flying over its territory in the future.

The new order resulted from the Jan. 17 crash of a B52 carrying nuclear devices. At least one of the weapons has not been found and the search for it intensified Friday in the Mediterranean near the southern city of Almeria.

The B52 was refueling from a tanker when it plunged near Almeria. Tight security covered developments in the bomb search as more boats took part.

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The State Board of Equalization Friday directed State Tax Commissioner George Dworak to proceed with his analysis of the professional reappraisals of six Sandhills counties.

Gov. Frank Morrison and Dworak reported "some serious questions" have been raised regarding the appraisals made by the Brandt Appraisal Co. of Scottsbluff for the counties of Arthur, McPherson, Grant, Hooker, Thomas and Blaine.

Morrison said Brandt firm representatives are to appear before Dworak "next Tuesday to explain apparent discrepancies in their (Brandt) appraisal work."

Decision Next Week

Dworak said he would approve or disapprove the reappraisals after the representatives' appearance next week.

Officials said the Brandt firm has reappraisal contracts with 13 counties.

In board action endorsing Dworak's actions, Morrison said, "We want to make sure these reappraisals and those to come are accurate, and we're going to insist on the reappraisal work being as scientific as possible."

Nine counties, including the six Sandhills counties under study, were completed Jan. 1, 1966. Twenty other counties are under reappraisal, of which 13 were commenced before the state's mandatory reappraisal law was passed.

Questioned

The accuracy of the appraisals in the six Sandhills counties was first questioned in early January by the Nebraska Stock Growers Association in a meeting with Dworak and other state equalization board members.

Chase and Perkins Counties also have notified Dworak that their reappraisals have been revoked by the county boards after earlier action approving them.

Derailed Iowa Train Causes Rescheduling

Ralston, Iowa (AP)—Officials estimated it will be late Saturday before wreckage of 81 derailed Chicago and North Western Railway freight cars could be removed from the scene of a wreck Thursday night.

Other freight trains—an average of 11 a day come through here—were being rerouted until workers laboring in sub-zero temepratures could clear the tracks on the railroad's main line.

Cause of the massive derailment, which tore up more than 700 feet of track, remained unknown.

Cars involved carried lumber, sybeans, barley, canned olives, fuel oil and Bentonite clay. The scene was on the edge of this western Iowa town about 15 miles east of Carroll.

Judges Say Bond Not Denied Seat Because Of Race

Atlanta (AP) — A three-judge federal court dismissed Friday the contention that Rep.-elect Julian Bond, a Negro, was denied his seat in the Georgia House because of his race. But the court withheld a ruling on Bond's move for an order seating him.

"There's nothing that would cause this court to give weight to the basic contention that he was denied his seat because he is a Negro," said Chief Judge Elbert P Tuttle of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, presiding over the panel.

LBJ CITES RESOLUTION GRANTING HIM POWERS

Washington (AP) — President Johnson, facing a decision on whether to resume the bombing of North Viet Nam, said Friday he is being guided by a 1964 congressional resolution giving him broad powers to decide military matters.

Johnson said peace in Viet Nam is being blocked by a few fanatical leaders who are following a rule-or-ruin strategy. We must not let them succeed, he said.

Johnson cited the 1964 resolution in responding to 15 Senate Democrats who wrote the President saying "we believe you should have our collective udgment before you make your decision."

Th3 President's two-paragraph reply was addressed to Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana, a principal author of the letter signed by the 15 Democrats.

Rusk Cites Resolution

This resolution, which the Senate and House approved by an aggregate vote of 504 to 2, also was cited by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at a session with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Johnson added in his letter that his views remain as stated in a letter he wrote to a group of House members last week. He added:

"Even though it is increasingly clear that we have had only a hostile response to the present pause in bombing North Viet Nam, you can be sure that our unflagging pursuit of peace will continue."

Rusk pointedly reminded Senate questioners that in the 1964 resolution Congress authorized the President to use armed force if necessary in defense of South Viet Nam.

'No Reservations'

And he said the senate "made no reservations" when it ratified the Southeast Asia Treaty (SEATO) which he also contended gives legal backing for present Asian policy.

To senators who expressed alarm at the way things are going, Rusk said the Senate in ratifying the pact didn't say "this doesn't apply if things get tough."

Rusk appeared before the committee in support of the administration's request for an emergency foreign aid supplement of $415 million, primarily for Viet Nam. He ran into tough sledding.

The possibility of an expanded war obviously weighed on the minds of committee members. They kept questioning Rusk until he pleaded an "urgent appointment" at 1 p.m.

Fulbright spearheaded efforts by the committee members to pin down U.S. policy and just how far it goes.

Mott's Body Begins Long Trip Home

Moscow (AP) — The body of Newcomb Mott began its long journey home Friday night, leaving behind a growing Soviet-U.S. dispute over the cloudy circumstances of his death on a Soviet prison train.

The Soviet news agency Novosti circulated a report for foreign consumption only suggesting that Mott may have killed himself because he felt abandoned by the U.S. embassy. It said Mott also had taken pills that might have affected his behavior.

A senior diplomat from the U.S. embassy called on the foreign ministry to complain about "erroneous items" in the news agency account. The diplomat, Minister-Counsellor John C. Guthrie, recalled that more than 30 separate U.S. efforts to secure Mott's release had been turned down by the Russians.

The embassy also asked the foreign ministry for a speedy report as possible on the Soviet investigation into Mott's death. The Russians agreed to supply the report as soon as possible.

Mott, 27, died Jan. 20 on a Soviet train taking him from a Murmansk jail to an unspecified labor camp. He was serving an 18-month sentence after being convicted of entering the Soviet Union illegally.

When the body arrives in Boston Saturday, an autopsy will be performed by Dr. Michael A. Luongo, Suffolk County medical examiner.

His body was flown to London and will be sent Saturday via Boston to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mott, at Sheffield.

'Mary, Mary' Performers Win Opening Night Laughs

By GARY GRAUL
Star Staff Writer

The hilarious lines of Jean Kerr's hit Broadway comedy "Mary, Mary", spiced by the delightful antics of lead performers James Hewitt and Flo Weir, evoked a constant roar of laughter from the first-night audience at the Lincoln Community Playhouse Friday evening.

A touch of topical local humor was contributed by the remark of a book publisher, played by Hewitt, who said, "I'm going to publish a series of sex novels—'Candy' . . . 'Fanny Hill' . . . 'To Kill a Mockingbird' . . ."

Half-drunk with an overdose of sleeping pills, he shouted at a playboy-actor (Delbert Housman) that his ex-wife (Flo) "has got more goodness in her whole body than you have in your little finger."

Able supporting acting came from Donald Williamson, a lawyer who sometimes seemed to have the only sane voice in the insane world of the publisher's apartment, where the entire play took place.

A touch of beauty was provided by vivacious Roma Chenoweth, Hewitt's socialite fiancee, who fell for him because "he was the first man I met who wasn't attracted to me."

A remarkable job was done by scene designer LeRoi Schoonover. Also note-worthy was very effective use of onstage lighting.

Lincoln theater patrons will find it is well worth braving the sub-zero temperatures to attend one of the remaining productions of "Mary, Mary" on January 29 or February 1-6.

German Air Crash Fatal To 46

Bremen, Germany (AP) — A twin-engine Convair groping through patchy fog for a landing at Bremen airport crashed and exploded in flames late Friday. Police said all the 42 passengers and 4 crewmen were killed.

Seven Italian swimmers, their trainer and an Italian television newsman were among the victims. The swimmers—three women and four men—were to have taken part in an international meet that opened Friday night in Bremen.

Other names on the passenger and crew lists appeared to be German, but no addresses were given.

Gas Service Restored To Northeast Area

Outage Lasted 5 To 8 Hours In Bitter Cold

. . . 10 Towns Hit

Norfolk (AP) — Natural gas service was restored to 10 communities in northeast Nebraska Friday after a five to eight-hour outage caused when a line burst north of Newman Grove.

About 20,000 persons, including the 13,000 residents of Norfolk, were without gas heating in the sub-zero weather. Norfolk's low was nine below and the high for the day was five below.

A spokesman for the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, owner of the six-inch line, said it knew of no hardship cases resulting from the stoppage and residents of the communities affected quickly resumed normal activities after service was restored.

Hospitals On Standby

Hospitals in the affected area used standby facilities. Some schools were closed but most business places remained open.

Utility technicians from unaffected areas were rushed to the communities to make individual checks of gas meters and re-ignite pilot lights.

Service at Battle Creek was restored five hours after the line broke about five miles north of Newman Grove. Residents of Wisner were the last to get service, about eight hours after the break.

Other communities affected were Tilden, Meadow Grove, Winside, Madison, Humphrey, Norfolk, Stanton and Pilger.

Kansas - Nebraska wholesales gas to the Western Power and Gas Company of Lincoln, which served nine of the 10 towns involved. Winside is served directly by Kansas-Nebraska.

Exact Cause Unknown

The Kansas - Nebraska spokesman said the exact cause of the line rupture had not been determined but the pipe probably was strained by contraction caused by the extremely cold temperatures.

Several three-inch laterals are fed by the line which broke.

Norfolk officials opened the city auditorium for persons who had no heat in their homes. A theater and some churches also were opened. All use oil for heating.

Burns High School in Norfolk, which has an alternate heating plant, was open for classes.

Seventy-seven Western Power and Gas Company workers from Lincoln, York, Columbus and Sioux Falls were sent to the stricken northeast area Friday.

A spokesman for the company said the men returned to their homes after checking out of meters and pilot lights was completed at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Prime Agricultural Research Needs Related

Nebraska Experiment Station workers, concluding a two-day conference here Friday, heard a David City businessman and banker list what he considered prime agricultural research needs still to be met.

Henry Klosterman, former chairman of the Advisory Council to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, told the agriculture and home economics researchers great strides have been made in developing such techniques as chemical weed control, minimum tillage, labor-saving irrigation, and forage harvesting.

But he cited these areas as needing more research emphasis:

1. Irrigation practices which make the most efficient use of limited water supplies—especially for non-row crops which use smaller quantities of water over a longer period.

2. Stepped-up work in grass breeding, to help bolster "one of our least developed sources of income—pasture and forage, (excepting the Sandhills:." More successful combinations of grasses—both warm season and cool-season—with emphasis on better fertilization practices and development of non-bloating legumes.

3. Development of better methods of grass establishment, with the possibility of incorporating fluffy seeds of some species into pellets for some successful seeding.

4. Development of a satisfactory chemical weed control in soybean culture. The soybean is expected to play an enormous role in the world food crisis. Klosterman commented.

Another speaker at the conference, Experiment Station Director Dr. H. H. Kramer, told research workers that the past year "has seen a remarkable change in the attitude of the general public in the U.S. regarding agricultural surplus commodities, or in terminology many persons would prefer, our agricultural 'abundance.' "

The NU administrator said "we have turned the corner as far as recognizing the necessity for improved agricultural production."

Beadle Will Receive 4-H Alum Award

Dr. Beadle

The national recognition for the famed geneticist, a native of Wahoo, carries with it the distinction of being an honored guest at the 1966 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in November.

The honor, announced by the National 4-H Service Committee, is the highest award that can be bestowed on former club members by the 4-H movement. Recipients of the National Alumni Award will each receive a gold 4-H Alumni key at a recognition dinner in Chicago, Nov. 30.

Nobel Prize Winner

Dr. Beadle is one of three Americans who shared the 1958 Nobel Prize in medicine and physiology. Research by him and his associates involved the bombarding of red bread mole with X-ray and ultra-violet to study effects on genes which control chemical processes in living organisms. Their discoveries helped lay the foundation of the science of biochemical genetics.

Dr. Beadle earned B.S. and M.S. degrees at the University of Nebraska in 1926 and 1927, respectively.

Dworak Failed In Eavesdropping Attempt—Gugas

Omaha (AP) — A District Court jury was told Friday that former Omaha Mayor James Dworak took an electronic eavesdropping gadget with him to a meeting with John Coleman but the evidence-gathering attempt failed.

"He was sure this guy was trying to give him $25,000 and he wanted to record it," Chris Gugas said in a statement read to the all-woman jury.

The statement by Gugas was made in a deposition taken in Los Angeles Jan. 17. The former Omaha safety director now lives and works on the west coast.

The deposition was read Friday afternoon as part of the defense for Dworak, who is on trial charged with soliciting or agreeing to receive a bribe while he was mayor.

Ex-Nebraskan Is Found Dead

Council Bluffs, Ia. (AP) — Mrs. Barbara May Schicker, 72, a native of Elm Creek, Neb., was found dead on a bed in her one-room house.

The interior of the home was nearly gutted and Fire Chief James Burke said a cigaret may have caused the blaze.

Large Cities Air Problems At G.I. Meet

City managers and civic leaders from all cities in the state with population of more than 5,000 attended the session.

Another determination to be made, he said, was if the group is interested in sponsoring legislation.

Items scheduled for discussion included employe pension plans as pertaining to police and firemen and other city employes; problems of city streets which are highway extensions within corporate limits; contracts with the Nebraska Highway Department providing for the lighting of intersections outside the municipalities, and the city-county partnership to further the communities' needs in health departments, planning, zoning, building codes, electric and plumbing codes.

Lautenschlager Backs Action Of Predator Control Board

Grand Island (AP)— Former State Sen. Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island, executive secretary of the Nebraska Farmer-Rancher-Sportsmen Predator Control Association, Friday defended the action of the advisory board in permitting counties to withdraw from the program.

Sen. Jerome Warner of Waverly, chief sponsor of the bill, declared the law was designed to be statewide in scope and permitting counties to withdraw violates its intent even though the advisory board has legal authority to adopt a resolution permitting counties to drop out.

"This board was established to give the director of agriculture the benefit of grass-roots thinking of the people of agriculture and in this regard the board acted in line with their knowledge of the wishes of the majority," Lautenschlager said.

His group contends that under the law the federal government could exterminate coyotes over wide areas of the state, permitting pocket gophers, rabbits and other food of the coyote to run rampant.

Lautenschlager termed the legislation "permissive" and held that the director does not have to do anything unless he chooses to. He cited a section of the bill saying that the director "may co-operate" with the U.S. Department of Interior.

Challenges Warner

He also challenged Warner's contention that the law requires that a biologist co-ordinate anti-predator activity in the local level, saying that the bill merely provides, " 'that supervision of the program shall be by the local representative of the United States Department of Interior.' " This, said Lautenschlager "could be an office clerk with no biological experience whatsoever."

He declared Warner does not know the feeling of farmers and ranchers toward the bill.

'Library Funds Available For Private Schools'

Omaha (AP)—Omaha School Supt. Paul Miller said changes can be made in the Nebraska plan to use federal library money so that private schools may participate.

He commented on an attorney general's ruling vetoing the State Board of Education plan for use of federal money, saying the state constitution forbids use of public money for private school aid.

Dr. Miller said the ruling infers there is no public aid to private schools in Nebraska. This, he said, is not true.

He said that the Legislature, for example, passed a law that provides state aid to both public and private schools for driver education.

Dr. Miller did not specify what changes he had in mind in the library matter.

Dr. Floyd Miller, state education commissioner, said remedial reading projects dominate the requests he receives for federal funds under Title 1 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

"This would seem to suggest that our present reading programs are not good enough," he commented.

Bechtel became Perkins County sheriff Jan. 3, 1935, and has served continuously save for a 30-month period during World War II when he served as a civilian investigator for the FBI in Honolulu.

George B. Hastings, who presented the award, said that despite Bechtel's age, the FBI has urged him to remain on the job.

Fellman Says He May Run For Congress

The district is now represented by Republican Rep. Glenn Cunningham.

"I am interested in seeking the nomination," Fellman wrote in a letter mailed to a number of Democrats.

If he does decide to enter the race, Fellman said, "I would run hard to win and serve vigorously to represent all of our citizens with aggressive work in Congress.

"If I run," he said, "I'll try harder as a candidate. And, if I win, I'll try harder as your congressman.

He has served on the Douglas County Democratic central committee, the state central committee and was state chairman of Young Citiezns for Johnson - Humphrey in 1964.

Mayor, Labor Aides Meet

The issue has been raised several times over the past few months, but city officials have declined to comment on the possibility.

Petersen refused direct comment on the matter Friday but said he would "take it under advisement."

Russell Mundorf, business manager of the local electrical workers union, said following the meeting, "We want to sit down and bargain with the city on this."

Omaha labor official Virgil Cash said "92% of the city water and light employes want to become members of Local Union 1525 IBEW" (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers).

Fund Of $10,000 Set Up At NWU To Aid Students

Nebraska Wesleyan University has established a $10,000 fund for Nebraska Methodist educational grants, according to President Vance D. Rogers.

Dr. Rogers said the board of governors has approved the use of the money, provided by the Nebraska Annual Conference, for grants up to $300 each to Nebraska Methodist students.

Dr. Rogers said the $10,000 represents the increase in support of Nebraska Wesleyan approved by the Nebraska Annual Conference last June. The Conference had been providing $130,000 each year to Nebraska Wesleyan and will soon begin providing $140,000.

Dr. Rogers said the first grants will be made for next fall under the supervision of the student financial aids office.

Stuart Enterprises Backs Community Antenna TV

Another Lincoln company has indicated its interest in backing a Community Antenna Television (CATV) system for the city.

In a letter to the City Council filed Friday, Stuart Enterprises of Lincoln asked that an ordinance authorizing a system be passed by the council and that the firm be considered for a CATV franchise.

Stuart Enterprises is owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart and their children.

Richard Chapin, executive vice president of Stuart Enterprises, said in the letter that a "CATV system" has many potential uses as an entirely new communications medium for the dissemination of not only TV programs, but also FM radio programs, background music, news and weather information, special events and civil defense communications."

The Stuart bid follows a similar application made Thursday by T-V Transmission, Inc., for the grant of a franchise by ordinance to provide CATV service in the city.

The proposal to the city includes a pole rental agreement and an occupation tax payable to the city of two per cent of the gross monthly income.

12 Selected To Help With Roads Study

The Legislative Council's committee on state and local highway and street problems Friday announced the appointment of 12 city and county officials to serve on technical advisory committees.

Sen. Jules Burbach of Crofton, committee chairman, said the advisors would work with the consulting engineers engaged in the classification and need phase of the comprehensive highway study ordered by the 1965 Legislature.

Named to the county technical advisory committee were Carl Engle, Saline County engineer; Donald J. Jiracek, Knox County engineer; Hugh Dillon, Lancaster County engineer; George T. Baumann, Hall County supervisor; Fred F. Dickson, Dawson County engineer, and Keith Eberhardt, Scotts Bluff County engineer.

Appointees to the municipal technical advisory group are William Korbitz, Omaha public works director; Robert W. Obering, Lincoln public works director; T. R. Stewart, Hastings city engineer; Ray E. Lundy, Kearney city manager; Donald G. Hyde, Norfolk city engineer, and A. H. Britten, Gordon city manager.

Burbach said representatives of the consulting firm, Roy Jorgensen and Associates, are visiting with city and county officials throughout the state in gathering preliminary data.

He said these meetings are not public hearings, but only for the purpose of gathering information.

He said the legislative committee and the consultant will hold public hearings soon to give the state's citizens an opportunity to express their opinions on Nebraska's road and street needs.

Gas Service Restored To Northeast Area

Outage Lasted 5 To 8 Hours In Bitter Cold

. . . 10 Towns Hit

Norfolk (AP) — Natural gas service was restored to 10 communities in northeast Nebraska Friday after a five to eight-hour outage caused when a line burst north of Newman Grove.

About 20,000 persons, including the 13,000 residents of Norfolk, were without gas heating in the sub-zero weather. Norfolk's low was nine below and the high for the day was five below.

A spokesman for the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, owner of the six-inch line, said it knew of no hardship cases resulting from the stoppage and residents of the communities affected quickly resumed normal activities after service was restored.

Hospitals On Standby

Hospitals in the affected area used standby facilities. Some schools were closed but most business places remained open.

Utility technicians from unaffected areas were rushed to the communities to make individual checks of gas meters and re-ignite pilot lights.

Servic~ at Battle Creek was restored five hours after the line broke about five miles north of Newman Grove. Residents of Wisner were the last to get service, about eight hours after the break.

Other communities affected were Tilden, Meadow Grove, Winside, Madison, Humphrey, Norfolk, Stanton and Pilger.

Kansas - Nebraska wholesales gas to the Western Power and Gas Company of Lincoln, which served nine of the 10 towns involved. Winside is served directly by Kansas-Nebraska.

Exact Cause Unknown

The Kansas - Nebraska spokesman said the exact cause of the line rupture had not been determined but the pipe probably was strained by contraction caused by the extremely cold temperatures.

Several three-inch laterals are fed by the line which broke.

Norfolk officials opened the city auditorium for persons who had no heat in their homes. A theater and some churches also were opened. All use oil for heating.

Burns High School in Norfolk, which has an alternate heating plant, was open for classes.

Seventy-seven Western Power and Gas Company workers from Lincoln, York, Columbus and Sioux Falls were sent to the stricken northeast area Friday.

A spokesman for the company said the men returned to their homes after checking out of meters and pilot lights was completed at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Prime Agricultural Research Needs Related

Nebraska Experiment Station workers, concluding a two-day conference here Friday, heard a David City businessman and banker list what he considered prime agricultural research needs still to be met.

Henry Klosterman, former chairman of the Advisory Council to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, told the agriculture and home economics researchers great strides have been made in developing such techniques as chemical weed control, minimum tillage, labor-saving irrigation, and forage harvesting.

But he cited these areas as needing more research emphasis:

1. Irrigation practices which make the most efficient use of limited water supplies—especially for non-row crops which use smaller quantities of water over a longer period.

2. Stepped-up work in grass breeding, to help bolster "one of our least developed sources of income—pasture and forage, (excepting the Sandhills;." More successful combinations of grasses—both warm season and cool-season—with emphasis on better fertilization practices and development of non-bloating legumes.

3. Development of better methods of grass establishment, with the possibility of incorporating fluffy seeds of some species into pellets for some successful seeding.

4. Development of a satisfactory chemical weed control in soybean culture. The soybean is expected to play an enormous role in the world food crisis, Klosterman commented.

Another speaker at the conference, Experiment Station Director Dr. H. H. Kramer, told research workers that the past year "has seen a remarkable change in the attitude of the general public in the U.S. regarding agricultural surplus commodities, or in terminology many persons would prefer, our agricultural 'abundance.'"

The NU administrator said "we have turned the corner as far as recognizing the necessity for improved agricultural production."

3 Postmasterships In Nebraska Okayed

Washington (AP) — Three Nebraskans were included in a list of postmaster nominees submitted to the Senate by President Johnson Friday.

Beadle Will Receive 4-H Alum Award

Dr. Beadle

The national recognition for the famed geneticist, a native of Wahoo, carries with it the distinction of being an honored guest at the 1966 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in November.

The honor, announced by the National 4-H Service Committee, is the highest award that can be bestowed on former club members by the 4-H movement. Recipients of the National Alumni Award will each receive a gold 4-H Alumni key at a recognition dinner in Chicago, Nov. 30.

Nobel Prize Winner

Dr. Beadle is one of three Americans who shared the 1958 Nobel Prize in medicine and physiology. Research by him and his associates involved the bombarding of red bread mole with X-ray and ultra-violet to study effects on genes which control chemical processes in living organisms. Their discoveries helped lay the foundation of the science of biochemical genetics.

Dr. Beadle earned B.S. and M.S. degrees at the University of Nebraska in 1926 and 1927, respectively.

Large Cities Air Problems At G.I. Meet

City managers and civic leaders from all cities in the state with population of more than 5,000 attended the session.

Ray E. Lundy, Kearney city manager, chairman of the section, said one of the important phases of the meeting was to discuss formalizing the group as a large city sub-division of the league.

Another determination to be made, he said, was if the group is interested in sponsoring legislation.

Items scheduled for discussion included employe pension plans as pertaining to police and firemen and other city employes; problems of city streets which are highway extensions within corporate limits; contracts with the Nebraska Highway Department providing for the lighting of intersections outside the municipalities, and the city-county partnership to further the communities' needs in health departments, planning, zoning, building codes, electric and plumbing codes.

Lautenschlager Backs Action Of Predator Control Board

Grand Island (AP)— Former State Sen. Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island, executive secretary of the Nebraska Farmer-Rancher-Sportsmen Predator Control Association, Friday defended the action of the advisory board in permitting counties to withdraw from the program.

Sen. Jerome Warner of Waverly, chief sponsor of the bill, declared the law was designed to be statewide in scope and permitting counties to withdraw violates its intent even though the advisory board has legal authority to adopt a resolution permitting counties to drop out.

"This board was established to give the director of agriculture the benefit of grassroots thinking of the people of agriculture and in this regard the board acted in line with their knowledge of the wishes of the majority," Lautenschlager said.

His group contends that under the law the federal government could exterminate coyotes over wide areas of the state, permitting pocket gophers, rabbits and other food of the coyote to run rampant.

Lautenschlager termed the legislation "permissive" and held that the director does not have to do anything unless he chooses to. He cited a section of the bill saying that the director "may co-operate" with the U.S. Department of Interior.

Challenges Warner

He also challenged Warner's contention that the law requires that a biologist co-ordinate anti-predator activity in the local level, saying that the bill merely provides, " 'that supervision of the program shall be by the local representative of the United States Department of Interior.' " This, said Lautenschlager "could be an office clerk with no biological experience whatsoever."

He declared Warner does not know the feeling of farmers and ranchers toward the bill.

'Library Funds Available For Private Schools'

Omaha (AP)—Omaha School Supt. Paul Miller said changes can be made in the Nebraska plan to use federal library money so that private schools may participate.

He commented on an attorney general's ruling vetoing the State Board of Education plan for use of federal money, saying the state constitution forbids use of public money for private school aid.

Dr. Miller said the ruling inferes there is no public aid to private schools in Nebraska. This, he said, is not true.

He said that the Legislature, for example, passed a law that provides state aid to both public and private schools for driver education.

Dr. Miller did not specify what changes he had in mind in the library matter.

Dr. Floyd Miller, state education commissioner, said remedial reading projects dominate the requests he receives for federal funds under Title 1 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

"This would seem to suggest that our present reading programs are not good enough," he commented.

Turin, Italy (AP)— Alfredo Crosa, 74, died of a heart attack. A minute later his wife, Angiolina, 68, fell to the floor and died. Doctors said a heart attack also caused her death.

Fellman Says He May Run For Congress

"I am interested in seeking the nomination," Fellman wrote in a letter mailed to a number of Democrats.

If he does decide to enter the race, Fellman said, "I would run hard to win and serve vigorously to represent all of our citizens with aggressive work in Congress.

"If I run," he said, "I'll try harder as a candidate. And, if I win, I'll try harder as your congressman.

Fellman has been in Omaha since 1960.

He has served on the Douglas County Democratic central committee, the state central committee and was state chairman of Young Citiezns for Johnson - Humphrey in 1964.

Mayor, Labor Aides Meet

The issue has been raised several times over the past few months, but city officials have declined to comment on the possibility.

Petersen refused direct comment on the matter Friday but said he would "take it under advisement."

Russell Mundorf, business manager of the local electrical workers union, said following the meeting, "We want to sit down and bargain with the city on this."

Omaha labor official Virgil Cash said "92% of the city water and light employes want to become members of Local Union 1525 IBEW" (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers).

Fund Of $10,000 Set Up At NWU To Aid Students

Nebraska Wesleyan University has established a $10,000 fund for Nebraska Methodist educational grants, according to President Vance D. Rogers.

Dr. Rogers said the board of governors has approved the use of the money, provided by the Nebraska Annual Conference, for grants up to $300 each to Nebraska Methodist students.

Dr. Rogers said the $10,000 represents the increase in support of Nebraska Wesleyan approved by the Nebraska Annual Conference last June. The Conference had been providing $130,000 each year to Nebraska Wesleyan and will soon begin providing $140,000.

Dr. Rogers said the first grants will be made for next fall under the supervision of the student financial aids office.

Bechtel became Perkins County sheriff Jan. 3, 1935, and has served continuously save for a 30-month period during World War II when he served as a civilian investigator for the FBI in Honolulu.

George B. Hastings, who presented the award, said that despite Bechtel's age, the FBI has urged him to remain on the job.

Stuart Enterprises Backs Community Antenna TV

Another Lincoln company has indicated its interest in backing a Community Antenna Television (CATV) system for the city.

In a letter to the City Council filed Friday, Stuart Enterprises of Lincoln asked that an ordinance authorizing a system be passed by the council and that the firm be considered for a CATV franchise.

Stuart Enterprises is owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart and their children.

Richard Chapin, executive vice president of Stuart Enterprises, said in the letter that a "CATV system" has many potential uses as an entirely new communications medium for the dissemination of not only TV programs, but also FM radio programs, background music, news and weather information, special events and civil defense communications."

The Stuart bid follows a similar application made Thursday by T-V Transmission, Inc., for the grant of a franchise by ordinance to provide CATV service in the city.

The proposal to the city includes a pole rental agreement and an occupation tax payable to the city of two per cent of the gross monthly income.

Dworak Failed In Eavesdropping Attempt—Gugas

Omaha (AP) — A District Court jury was told Friday that former Omaha Mayor James Dworak took an electronic eavesdropping gadget with him to a meeting with John Coleman but the evidence - gathering attempt failed.

"He was sure this guy was trying to give him $25,000 and he wanted to record it," Chris Gugas said in a statement read to the all-woman jury.

The statement by Gugas was made in a deposition taken in Los Angeles Jan. 17. The former Omaha safety director now lives and works on the west coast.

The deposition was read Friday afternoon as part of the defense for Dworak, who is on trial charged with soliciting or agreeing to receive a bribe while he was mayor.

Never A Dull Moment

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Just to end the week in good balance, we might repeat a quote from S. I. Hayakawa appearing in the Christian Science Monitor: "Each of us has his own little private conviction of rightness and, almost by definition, the Utopian condition of rightness and, almost by definition, the Utopian condition of which we all dream is that in which all people finally see the error of their ways and agree with us. And underlying practically all our attempts to bring agreements is the assumption that agreement is brought about by changing people's minds—other people's."

Our Position Right One

The Canadian-born and now New York writer and professor has a good insight of the average person. It simply defies the understanding of most of us why others fail to see things our way. After all, if it were not right and correct, we would not believe what we do. Therefore, since what we believe is right and true, then why is it not accepted with open arms by everyone? Take your political philosophy, for instance. It is the salvation of the world but amazingly, about half the people you run into will argue with you on the subject. Why is it that they can't see things correctly?

Or maybe you have the perfect answer to the city's traffic problems. But take your solution to City Hall and all people do is find fault with it. Obviously, the authorities or officials are protecting their jobs by deliberately undermining all worthwhile efforts to solve the traffic problems.

Maybe you are a salesman. There isn't any question that you have the best product of its kind on the market. The thing that dumfounds you is that you are always running into people wasting their money on some other product. Now, why is it that some people just seem to want to throw their money away?

If Bob Devaney had listened to you, he would never have lost the Orange Bowl game to Alabama. To top it all off, you know exactly and precisely how Joe Cipriano can win the Big Eight basketball championships and go on to national honors in the NCAA playoffs. But will he listen to you? No, he just goes right on winning with his own ways. But when he loses another game, and it is likely to happen before the season is over, you will be able to say, "I told you so," and everyone will then realize you were right. What gets you is that nobody will listen to you until it is too late.

And then there is Viet Nam. We do know of one fellow who hasn't figured it all out. In the last presidential election, he reports, he was advised that if he voted for Barry Goldwater, the war in Viet Nam would be escalated. It all doesn't seem to add up right but he did vote for Goldwater and, sure enough, the war has been escalated.

While that fellow is confused, there are others who have a clear and precise understanding of the situation. They can get to the heart of matters in Asia in no time at all. They know exactly what should be done in Viet Nam and exactly what the results will be — highly favorable to us. But will President Johnson listen to them? Why, they can't even get to him. No wonder the world is going to pot when the President has no access to the one plan that would do away with the most pressing and dangerous problem of current times.

There are times when this is not as funny as it sounds. Every now and then, somebody like the President says something to make you think he could use a little help. In his budget message to Congress, President Johnson made this thoughtful statement: "It is often harder work to save money than to find productive ways to spend it."

Benjamin Franklin might have come up with a homely analysis such as that a good many years ago but it seems almost naive today. We hope the President didn't think he was telling us anything we haven't known for a long time. Otherwise, the fellow in the boondocks with the answer to Viet Nam should maybe be elevated to a cabinet post.

Bond Going Strong

He has done some thoughtful and provocative writing but we know of nothing he has produced to make a million dollars. Yet, "Thunderball," the fourth James Bond secret agent film, is about to cross over into a black-ink operation after earning $15 million. The Bond adventure will hit its black-ink mark after just seven weeks of domestic release and showings in fewer than 500 theaters. That surely must make Mr. Hayakawa scratch his head a little bit. Bond may fade away about as quickly as he rose to stardom but can you think of a better way to go?

In New York, some people think they have the answer to the transit problem. Whether they have or not, they prove we haven't seen everything yet. They propose, among other things, a 20 percent tax on gross revenues of private parking facilities and a five-cent boost in transit fares. Let's see the commuter get out of that combination. We must stop now as a fellow just dropped in to tell us the secret of eternal youth.

A Point Of Honor

Since our readers have an image to sustain as sophisticated citizens of the world, it is time they were introduced to the Ben Barka case.

This case could develop into an historic one like the Dreyfuss case, the Stavisky matter or the collapse of the De Lesseps effort to cut a canal across Panama, before the U.S. started and finished it. The French have a faculty of committing a series of dishonorable acts and then struggling successfully for an honorable finish. It is the finish that counts. In the U.S.A., if we start out bad we finish bad. We are different.

The French also hold a formal trial and convict every government they have finished with so that they can have a reasonable, legal basis for substituting a new form of government. It is a French trait which we do not have. We do not go in for political trials or trials of honor.

The first error to assume in the pending Ben Barka case is that the last name is Barka and the given name is Ben. Mr. Ben Barka's first name is Mehdi. He was a Morrocan, a left winger and a nationalist, a leader of a large group that was unhappy with the way things were going. He had the responsibility of organizing a Tri-continental Solidarity Conference to be held at Havana, Cuba. That responsibility took him to Paris. While he was there two policemen seized him, took him out of sight and he has never reappeared. It is presumed that he was killed, unlawfully.

The Tricontinental conference went off as scheduled even though Ben Barka was absent. Representatives from the 83 nations raised strong questions about the involved motives and the fate of Ben Barka. That put it up to France which met the criticism with a stiff show of honor. It pointed a finger at General Oufkir, Morrocan Minister of Interior, as the probable conspirator against Ben Barka. Now you have the elements. Watch the papers for further developments.

Cut REA Funds

Congress had recently approved $402 million for REA loans for electric distribution and generation. That was a skin tight appropriation. It caused a good deal of the debate over whether REA's should go into the private money market.

Now the 1966 proposed national budget trims the REA figure to $270 million. This obviously is far less than adequate for the expansion and rehabilitation plans of the REA. Certainly if REA plans are to be realized some other source of credit must be sought.

This is not to assess blame on the President. The Viet Nam trouble is costly. The money for it must come from somewhere. REA funds were among those which had to give ground.

Current REA plans would require a loan volume of $675 million. This is almost three times the amount the budget means to make available. Officials of the Rural Electric Cooperative Association claim this drying up of funds will cut the heart out of the REA program. They cannot understand why a President, who has been such a friend and supporter of rural electric co-operatives, could be so unkind. But these people should distinguish between fulfilling their dreams and rendering realistic service.

Creative Federalism

From The Christian Science Monitor

Many of President Johnson's Great Society programs are actually carried out by state, local, and even private agencies. Coordination has not always been easy.

Mr. Johnson is apparently concerned lest the structural system of government prove inadequate to handle competently and efficiently these many and complex programs. Problems of responsibility, jurisdiction, and communication are such that the President reportedly feels that administrative reorganization of both the federal government and federal-state relationships should have high priority.

In his state of the Union message Mr. Johnson proposed a commission of distinguished scholars and men of public affairs "to develop a creative federalism to best use the wonderful diversity of our institutions and our people to solve the problems and to fulfill the dreams of the American people."

The federal system of government has been one of the most useful of America's contributions to the political thought of the world. The American people will naturally wish to examine with great care any recommendations for changes within that system.

If the President's commission can come up with practical proposals to restore the balance of power between the federal government and the states, by strengthening the states, it will have performed a valuable service indeed.

One report speculates that Mr. Johnson may have in mind a plan resembling that developed to administer the Appalachian recovery program, which he has called "the truest example of creative federalism in our times." Although the money comes from the federal government, policy decisions are made by the governors of the 12-state region, and local initiative determines the success of local programs.

Pearson Unloads On Senator Dodd

WASHINGTON — The intent of the Foreign Agents Registration Act is to give full publicity to anyone representing a foreign government and what they do. There is nothing illegal about acting as a foreign agent as long as the American people are informed of the fact.

Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., knew this because he once registered as an agent for the government of Guatemala between his service in the House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate. He knows therefore that when he gives speeches in the Senate ghost-written for him by Maj. Gen. Julius Klein, a $150,000 agent for West German interests, the public is entitled to know it.

The public is also entitled to know of Sen. Dodd's other operations.

No ordinary senator, Dodd was chosen to nominate Lyndon Johnson for president against Kennedy in 1960. Four years later, as the competition for vice president narrowed down, Hubert Humphrey and Tom Dodd both flew to the Atlantic City convention for the final selection as LBJ's running mate.

The silver-haired Dodd is also the image of what a senator ought to look like. His classic countenance resembles a bust of Caesar suddenly come alive.

Gen. Klein couldn't have picked a more impressive errand boy, and he called on him repeatedly. Last year, for example, he asked Dodd to stir up trouble at the Justice Department for a competitor.

"I am enclosing," Klein wrote to Dodd, Feb. 12, 1965, "a photostatic copy of the registration statement filed by a disgruntled competitor, Edwin Hartrich of Duesseldorf, Germany.

"You will recall you told me that you would write to the Department of Justice to find out why Hartrich didn't register in March of 1962.

"Hartrich did not register until December, 1963, when he was forced to do so almost two years after his alleged assignment for Dr. Erich Mende (then German vice chancellor). Mr. Hartrich is one of those who was most active . . . in campaigning against my business here in Germany.

"I wonder if you have now written to the Department of Justice inquiring why Hartrich was permitted to act as a foreign agent without registering until finally forced to do so in December, and whether any disciplinary action has been taken against him.

"I think this move would do a lot to clear up the matter, and you were good enough to tell me that you would do it."

In 1961 and again in 1964, Dodd touted Klein for membership on the American Battle Monuments Commission. But each time the honor went to another.

Sen. Neuberger Asks Light On Viet Nam

WASHINGTON — Calmly, even agreeably, Sen. Maureen Neuberger D-Ore., has sought to pierce what seems to her the near-isolation of President Johnson with his top advisers on Viet Nam.

The American people, she told the Senate, do not have a clear understanding of why we are in Viet Nam nor of the consequences of our stated policies there. In this simple sentence she compressed what profoundly troubles many members of Congress as they await the President's next moves.

Senator Neuberger had shaped her remarks before she attended the Johnson briefing of congressional leaders Tuesday night. She saw no reason to alter them, and she made an indirect comment on such White House efforts to quiet Congress.

"A third element influencing public attitudes to the Viet Nam war," she told senators, "is the failure of the administration to distinguish with enough care between rhetoric and reason in explaining our Southeast Asia policies." What they are getting instead, as she saw it, are "incomplete rationales justifying military and political policies already put into effect."

Her judgment of the American mood is that a majority will follow the President on any "realistic" course he takes, but she insists that he cannot say that they will do so willingly and in full understanding of the consequences.

A Neuberger suggestion for public enlightenment is certainly unacceptable to the White House. She is asking for public hearings on Viet Nam by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with officials and private citizens as witnesses.

The White House feels that public dialogue of this or any other kind tends to encourage Hanoi and Peking to persist in the war. This view is pressed by officials and commanders in Viet Nam, which is understandable. Whether they are good judges of how public opinion is formed at home is another matter.

Public hearings have the fault that they tend to attract people who have their minds made up and who are filled with conviction that solutions can be simple. Viet Nam is a gray area, as the President has recognized in his finesses and apparent flexibility.

Yet it is unlikely that discussion can be significantly dampened. Mrs. Neuberger pointed out that Viet Nam is the first television war and has brought the reality of "war is hell" into the living room. She cautioned that Viet Nam seems foreign and far away. Few schools teach Asian languages, and American democracy, she said, has few parallels in Asia.

The President has recognized that the Viet Nam battleground is no showcase for freedom as of now. He has offered programs to cure the situation. An aide at the scene acknowledged that the latest and most ambitious one had "a faintly totalitarian flavor."

ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

On the same day this week that Val Peterson came to Lincoln to complete his filing as a Republican candidate for governor, Nobby Tiemann was in Superior to deliver his 100th campaign speech.

Walton

Peterson beat Tiemann to the punch in announcing his candidacy first last fall, but Tiemann was first in launching his primary campaign in earnest.

Obviously, Peterson is much the better known of the two and regarded as a clear favorite in the GOP gubernatorial scrap. Those are two compelling reasons why Tiemann had to start early.

☆ ☆ ☆

We caught the young Wausa bank president in Lincoln this week just before he left for a speaking engagement in Beatrice and asked him how the earliest full-time campaign of 1966 was going.

"Good. Good. We think we're making excellent progress," he said.

Tiemann has divided the state into nine areas. Eight area chairman are already active, and the ninth post is in the process of being filled.

Fifty Tiemann county chairmen are at work, and others are now being selected.

There are teenage groups, women's groups, campus groups and a cattleman's organization boosting his candidacy.

Tiemann's speaking schedule for January showed 22 engagements. February is "jammed solid," he noted, "and March is filling rapidly."

The January slate took him from Omaha to Sidney.

The advertising campaign which has already carried Tiemann's candidacy before newspaper readers, television viewers and radio listeners is a two-week saturation effort which will be followed up later.

Coming are billboards, yard signs and bumper stickers.

Tiemann has mailed a campaign letter to 100,000 Nebraskans, the bulk of whom are registered Republicans. Return postcards permit the recipient to volunteer to work in his behalf or contribute money.

The response has been "real good," Tiemann said.

No polls yet, but he may take some in March not to determine who is ahead, but to try to find out where Tiemann may be strong and where he might be weak.

Tiemann's newspaper ads stress the need to attract industry and establish "a proper balance" between industry and agriculture. Peterson made the same points at a news conference in Lincoln earlier in the week.

Both candidates have expressed their opposition to the state income tax law enacted by the 1965 Legislature.

So what are the issues in a primary campaign between Val Peterson and Nobby Tiemann? we asked.

"It's a choice between a young new candidate with a new approach compared to an individual who has a name and who has been in public office," Tiemann suggested.

Republicans "have been led down the broad, smooth path to defeat in the past," he declared.

There may be some differences between the two candidates on ideas of how best to accomplish the desired economic balance between agriculture and industry, Tiemann noted.

For instance, Tiemann said, he sees a need for redirection or reorientation of Nebraska's agricultural research program.

Research ought to be directed at such goals as increasing calf production and boosting the number of pigs in a litter, he suggested.

Tiemann said it is difficult to try to guess whether he or Peterson would be the more conservative candidate.

"In some areas, I might be. In other areas, Val might be," he said.

"In the administration of tax dollars appropriated by the Legislature, I think I'd be the more conservative.

"Because of my background in business, I wake up every morning trying to think of some way to cut costs. I have the business experience and agricultural background; he has the political experience."

Newspaper ads proclaim the slogan: "Get Nebraska moving again with Tiemann." He's moving out swiftly in the earliest gubernatorial campaign of 1966.

Winter with its snow and low temperatures is here. For the outdoor life, these cold-weather masks are of great value. I bought such a mask recently when I read the recommendations, and am very satisfied with it. It warms and humidifies cold air, and this is important to those of different ages. Especially is it beneficial for older folks with heart trouble. Snow shoveling is now much easier and surer.

Wish For New Year

Lincoln, Neb.

Following is a speech made by Lt. Col. Bich, Vietnamese, at Bao Loc, Lam Dong Province, in Viet Nam. The speech was made at a party celebrating TET, to a gathering of 200 to 300 Vietnamese soldiers, American officers and enlisted men, and French tea plantation owners. My husband, Maj. Calvin E. Green, was quite impressed with Col. Bich's sincerity.

"Dear American Friends: It is in the Vietnamese traditions that at the end of the lunar year, people make a 'balance sheet' to learn about the failures as well as the successes and chiefly to clean out the heart of worries and sorrow to receive Spring.

"TET is the time of pardon, of friendship and of gratitude. Even the worst adversaries (except communists!) get forgiven. With cleaned houses, new suits, fire-crackers and all kinds of festivities, people strengthen ties between friends and make new ones. They express their gratitude to God, to ancestors, to the dead and the living who were or are helping them.

"In this Lam Dong Province, small part of our beloved free Viet Nam, one year has passed through bad and good days. Some valiant soldiers have fallen in the battlefields — obscure heroes of freedom and democracy. Some failures that with a great pain deep down the heart we have got. And also the pleasure of well-done acts, of small victories against the common foe. We received and helped make a new life for thousands escaping communist execution. We enrolled into popular groups thousands of determined anti-communist inhabitants. And we participated in all activities giving the people a better life: traffic assured by regional, popular units working day and night, a bowl of rice carried with how much effort!

"I say, 'we.' This includes for sure all the Vietnamese youths fighting their own war. But it includes also certain American pilots working day and night, week days and weekends. Also American officers and NCO criss-crossing the jungle with their Vietnamese friends. Also certain American civilian officials performing their job. Also certain non-commissioned officers and enlisted men providing aid to us so that the Vietnamese are able to support such a long and tiring war. At this traditional and solemn TET time, the Vietnamese are grateful.

"TET is also the link of two cycles of the Universe, also the spring of Nature. You can observe flowers blossoming, the atmosphere brighter, plants and trees and men younger. It is the time when we express our warm-hearted wishes to friends for health, happiness and prosperity.

"With my poor knowledge of your beautiful language, I cannot explain everything I want you to know about our TET secular tradition of a people having more than 4,000 years of history and a culture of which we are proud. The only thing I wish is:

"May our foreigner friends who share our difficulties and fight our own fight know that they are in a part of our heart. May the new year bring to you and to your beloved families all the best things."

Taxes

Lincoln, Neb.

Taxes are what we all wish the other fellow would pay. The property tax is the oldest, I think. At least it's before my time so that makes it so old it is out of date. Yet it is the most essential of all. It must be placed on land to keep the rich from acquiring all the farming ground. It would be the safest investment on earth, with money no object to the wealthy. But would they know how to take care of it or what to do with it? Would it be for conservation, food, recreation, dams, or what?

Should the wealthy or the government control all the land, we would really be in trouble.

Anyone without property and earning big wages or salaries should have to pay income tax. Others with no property and no excessive wages, yet who consume goods, etc. should pay sales tax. I suggest cutting property taxes one half and adding sales and income taxes, with ceilings on both — for example, no more than a 2% sales tax and something similar on income tax.

If we are going to try to supply the needs of all people and the wants of the rich, we are going to have to pay taxes. But let's at least try to be fair to one and all.

OLD-TIMER

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"May I plead just a TEENSIE-WEENSIE bit guilty?"

Never A Dull Moment

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Just to end the week in good balance, we might repeat a quote from S. I. Hayakawa appearing in the Christian Science Monitor: "Each of us has his own little private conviction of rightness and, almost by definition, the Utopian condition of rightness and, almost by definition, the Utopian condition of which we all dream is that in which all people finally see the error of their ways and agree with us. And underlying practically all our attempts to bring agreements is the assumption that agreement is brought about by changing people's minds—other people's."

The Canadian-born and now New York writer and professor has a good insight of the average person. It simply defies the understanding of most of us why others fail to see things our way. After all, if it were not right and correct, we would not believe what we do. Therefore, since what we believe is right and true, then why is it not accepted with open arms by everyone? Take your political philosophy, for instance. It is the salvation of the world but amazingly, about half the people you run into will argue with you on the subject. Why is it that they can't see things correctly?

Our Position Right One

Or maybe you have the perfect answer to the city's traffic problems. But take your solution to City Hall and all people do is find fault with it. Obviously, the authorities or officials are protecting their jobs by deliberately undermining all worthwhile efforts to solve the traffic problems.

Maybe you are a salesman. There isn't any question that you have the best product of its kind on the market. The thing that dumfounds you is that you are always running into people wasting their money on some other product. Now, why is it that some people just seem to want to throw their money away?

If Bob Devaney had listened to you, he would never have lost the Orange Bowl game to Alabama. To top it all off, you know exactly and precisely how Joe Cipriano can win the Big Eight basketball championships and go on to national honors in the NCAA playoffs. But will he listen to you? No, he just goes right on winning with his own ways. But when he loses another game, and it is likely to happen before the season is over, you will be able to say, "I told you so," and everyone will then realize you were right. What gets you is that nobody will listen to you until it is too late.

And then there is Viet Nam. We do know of one fellow who hasn't figured it all out. In the last presidential election, he reports, he was advised that if he voted for Barry Goldwater, the war in Viet Nam would be escalated. It all doesn't seem to add up right but he did vote for Goldwater and, sure enough, the war has been escalated.

While that fellow is confused, there are others who have a clear and precise understanding of the situation. They can get to the heart of matters in Asia in no time at all. They know exactly what should be done in Viet Nam and exactly what the results will be — highly favorable to us. But will President Johnson listen to them? Why, they can't even get to him. No wonder the world is going to pot when the President has no access to the one plan that would do away with the most pressing and dangerous problem of current times.

There are times when this is not as funny as it sounds. Every now and then, somebody like the President says something to make you think he could use a little help. In his budget message to Congress, President Johnson made this thoughtful statement: "It is often harder work to save money than to find productive ways to spend it."

Benjamin Franklin might have come up with a homely analysis such as that a good many years ago but it seems almost naive today. We hope the President didn't think he was telling us anything we haven't known for a long time. Otherwise, the fellow in the boondocks with the answer to Viet Nam should maybe be elevated to a cabinet post.

Bond Going Strong

He has done some thoughtful and provocative writing but we know of nothing he has produced to make a million dollars. Yet, "Thunderball," the fourth James Bond secret agent film, is about to cross over into a black-ink operation after earning $15 million. The Bond adventure will hit its black-ink mark after just seven weeks of domestic release and showings in fewer than 500 theaters. That surely must make Mr. Hayakawa scratch his head a little bit. Bond may fade away about as quickly as he rose to stardom but can you think of a better way to go?

In New York, some people think they have the answer to the transit problem. Whether they have or not, they prove we haven't seen everything yet. They propose, among other things, a 20 percent tax on gross revenues of private parking facilities and a five-cent boost in transit fares. Let's see the commuter get out of that combination. We must stop now as a fellow just dropped in to tell us the secret of eternal youth.

A Point Of Honor

Since our readers have an image to sustain as sophisticated citizens of the world, it is time they were introduced to the Ben Barka case.

This case could develop into an historic one like the Dreyfuss case, the Stavisky matter or the collapse of the De Lesseps effort to cut a canal across Panama, before the U.S. started and finished it. The French have a faculty of committing a series of dishonorable acts and then struggling successfully for an honorable finish. It is the finish that counts. In the U.S.A., if we start out bad we finish bad. We are different.

The French also hold a formal trial and convict every government they have finished with so that they can have a reasonable, legal basis for substituting a new form of government. It is a French trait which we do not have. We do not go in for political trials or trials of honor.

The first error to assume in the pending Ben Barka case is that the last name is Barka and the given name is Ben. Mr. Ben Barka's first name is Mehdi. He was a Morrocan, a left winger and a nationalist, a leader of a large group that was unhappy with the way things were going. He had the responsibility of organizing a Tri-continental Solidarity Conference to be held at Havana, Cuba. That responsibility took him to Paris. While he was there two policemen seized him, took him out of sight and he has never reappeared. It is presumed that he was killed, unlawfully.

The Tricontinental conference went off as scheduled even though Ben Barka was absent. Representatives from the 83 nations raised strong questions about the involved motives and the fate of Ben Barka. WASHINGTON — Calmly, even agreeably, Sen. Maureen Neuberger D-Ore., has sought to pierce what seems to her the near-isolation of President Johnson with his top advisers on Viet Nam.

The American people, she told the Senate, do not have a clear understanding of why we are in Viet Nam nor of the consequences of our stated policies there. In this simple sentence she compressed what profoundly troubles many members of Congress as they await the President's next moves.

Senator Neuberger had shaped her remarks before she attended the Johnson briefing of congressional leaders Tuesday night. She saw no reason to alter them, and she made an indirect comment on such White House efforts to quiet Congress.

"A third element influencing public attitudes to the Viet Nam war," she told senators, "is the failure of the administration to distinguish with enough care between rhetoric and reason in explaining our Southeast Asia policies." What they are getting instead, as she saw it, are "incomplete rationales justifying military and political policies already put into effect."

Her judgment of the American mood is that a majority will follow the President on any "realistic" course he takes, but she insists that he cannot say that they will do so willingly and in full understanding of the consequences.

A Neuberger suggestion for public enlightenment is certainly unacceptable to the White House. She is asking for public hearings on Viet Nam by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with officials and private citizens as witnesses.

The White House feels that public dialogue of this or any other kind tends to encourage Hanoi and Peking to persist in the war. This view is pressed by officials and commanders in Viet Nam, which is understandable. Whether they are good judges of how public opinion is formed at home is another matter.

Public hearings have the fault that they tend to attract people who have their minds made up and who are filled with conviction that solutions can be simple. Viet Nam is a gray area, as the President has recognized in his finesses and apparent flexibility.

Yet it is unlikely that discussion can be significantly dampened. Mrs. Neuberger pointed out that Viet Nam is the first television war and has brought the reality of "war is hell" into the living room. She cautioned that Viet Nam seems foreign and far away. Few schools teach Asian languages, and American democracy, she said, has few parallels in Asia.

The President has recognized that the Viet Nam battleground is no showcase for freedom as of now. He has offered programs to cure the situation. An aide at the scene acknowledged that the latest and most ambitious one had "a faintly totalitarian flavor."

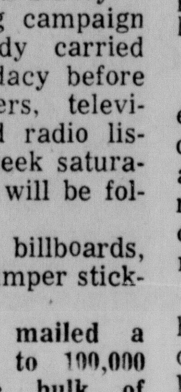
ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

On the same day this week that Val Peterson came to Lincoln to complete his filing as a Republican candidate for governor, Nobby Tiemann was in Superior to deliver his 100th campaign speech.



Walton

Peterson beat Tiemann to the punch in announcing his candidacy first last fall, but Tiemann was first in launching his primary campaign in earnest.

Obviously, Peterson is much the better known of the two and regarded as a clear favorite in the GOP gubernatorial scrap. Those are two compelling reasons why Tiemann had to start early.

☆ ☆ ☆

We caught the young Wausa bank president in Lincoln this week just before he left for a speaking engagement in Beatrice and asked him how the earliest full-time campaign of 1966 was going.

"Good. Good. We think we're making excellent progress," he said.

Tiemann has divided the state into nine areas. Eight area chairman are already active, and the ninth post is in the process of being filled.

Fifty Tiemann county chairmen are at work, and others are now being selected.

There are teenage groups, women's groups, campus groups and a cattleman's organization boosting his candidacy.

Tiemann's speaking schedule for January showed 22 engagements. February is "jammed solid," he noted, "and March is filling rapidly."

The January slate took him from Omaha to Sidney.

The advertising campaign which has already carried Tiemann's candidacy before newspaper readers, television viewers and radio listeners is a two-week saturation effort which will be followed up later.

Coming are billboards, yard signs and bumper stickers.

Tiemann has mailed a campaign letter to 100,000 Nebraskans, the bulk of whom are registered Republicans. Return postcards permit the recipient to volunteer to work in his behalf or contribute money.

The response has been "real good," Tiemann said.

No polls yet, but he may take some in March not to determine who is ahead, but to try to find out where Tiemann may be strong and where he might be weak.

Tiemann's newspaper ads stress the need to attract industry and establish "a proper balance" between industry and agriculture. Peterson made the same points at a news conference in Lincoln earlier in the week.

Both candidates have expressed their opposition to the state income tax law enacted by the 1965 Legislature.

So what are the issues in a primary campaign between Val Peterson and Nobby Tiemann? we asked.

"It's a choice between a young new candidate with a new approach compared to an individual who has a name and who has been in public office," Tiemann suggested.

Republicans "have been led down the broad, smooth path to defeat in the past," he declared.

There may be some differences between the two candidates on ideas of how best to accomplish the desired economic balance between agriculture and industry, Tiemann noted.

For instance, Tiemann said, he sees a need for redirection or reorientation of Nebraska's agricultural research progam.

Research ought to be directed at such goals as increasing calf production and boosting the number of pigs in a litter, he suggested.

Tiemann said it is difficult to try to guess whether he or Peterson would be the more conservative candidate.

"In some areas, I might be. In other areas, Val might be," he said.

"In the administration of tax dollars appropriated by the Legislature, I think I'd be the more conservative.

"Because of my background in business, I wake up every morning trying to think of some way to cut costs. I have the business experience and agricultural background; he has the political experience."

Newspaper ads proclaim the slogan: "Get Nebraska moving again with Tiemann." He's moving out swiftly in the earliest gubernatorial campaign of 1966.

Winter with its snow and low temperatures is here. For the outdoor life, these cold-weather masks are of great value. I bought such a mask recently when I read the recommendations, and am very satisfied with it. It warms and humidifies cold air, and this is important to those of different ages. Especially is it beneficial for older folks with heart trouble. Snow shoveling is now much easier and surer.

Wish For New Year

Lincoln, Neb.

Following is a speech made by Lt. Col. Bich, Vietnamese, at Bao Loc, Lam Dong Province, in Viet Nam. The speech was made at a party celebrating TET, to a gathering of 200 to 300 Vietnamese soldiers, American officers and enlisted men, and French tea plantation owners. My husband, Maj. Calvin E. Green, was quite impressed with Col. Bich's sincerity.

"Dear American Friends: It is in the Vietnamese traditions that at the end of the lunar year, people make a 'balance sheet' to learn about the failures as well as the successes and chiefly to clean out the heart of worries and sorrow to receive Spring.

"TET is the time of pardon, of friendship and of gratitude. Even the worst adversaries (except communists!) get forgiven. With cleaned houses, new suits, fire-crackers and all kinds of festivities, people strengthen ties between friends and make new ones. They express their gratitude to God, to ancestors, to the dead and the living who were or are helping them.

"In this Lam Dong Province, small part of our beloved free Viet Nam, one year has passed through bad and good days. Some valiant soldiers have fallen in the battlefields — obscure heroes of freedom and democracy. Some failures that with a great pain deep down the heart we have got. And also the pleasure of well-done acts, of small victories against the common foe. We received and helped make a new life for thousands escaping communist execution. We enrolled into popular groups thousands of determined anti-communist inhabitants. And we participated in all activities giving the people a better life: traffic assured by regional, popular units working day and night, a bowl of rice carried with how much effort!

"I say, 'we.' This includes for sure all the Vietnamese youths fighting their own war. But it includes also certain American pilots working day and night, week days and weekends. Also American officers and NCO crisscrossing the jungle with their Vietnamese friends. Also certain American civilian officials performing their job. Also certain non-commissioned officers and enlisted men providing aid to us so that the Vietnamese are able to support such a long and tiring war. At this traditional and solemn TET time, the Vietnamese are grateful.

"TET is also the link of two cycles of the Universe, also the spring of Nature. You can observe flowers blossoming, the atmosphere brighter, plants and trees and men younger. It is time when we express our warm-hearted wishes to friends for health, happiness and prosperity.

"With my poor knowledge of your beautiful language, I cannot explain everything I want you to know about our TET secular tradition of a people having more than 4,000 years of history and a culture of which we are proud. The only thing I wish is:

"May our foreigner friends who share our difficulties and fight our own fight know that they are in a part of our heart. May the new year bring to you and to your beloved families all the best things."

Taxes

Lincoln, Neb.

Taxes are what we all wish the other fellow would pay. The property tax is the oldest, I think. At least it's before my time so that makes it so old it is out of date. Yet it is the most essential of all. It must be placed on land to keep the rich from acquiring all the farming ground. It would be the safest investment on earth, with money no object to the wealthy. But would they know how to take care of it or what to do with it? Would it be for conservation, food, recreation, dams, or what?

Should the wealthy or the government control all the land, we would really be in trouble.

Anyone without property and earning big wages or salaries should have to pay income tax. Others with no property and no excessive wages, yet who consume goods, etc. should pay sales tax. I suggest cutting property taxes one half and adding sales and income taxes, with ceilings on both — for example, no more than a 2% sales tax and something similar on income tax.

If we are going to try to supply the needs of all people and the wants of the rich, we are going to have to pay taxes. But let's at least try to be fair to one and all.

Sixteen-Year Age Disparity No Cause For Alarm In Romance

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. "I'm a widow, 55, and have been going with a fine man who is just 39. I've known him five years but have turned down his proposal due to the difference in our ages. My friends say we look the same age. But I was brought up with the idea that husbands should be older than their wives. What's your honest opinion?"

A. A great age disparity such as 30 or 40 years can be pretty dangerous in romance. But your 16 years disparity isn't cause for alarm. If you genuinely know each other and love each other there's no need to be dissuaded by the artificial standards of social convention. When Sir Winston Churchill's mother was widowed she married a man 20 years younger than she—and they lived happily ever after.

Q. "My 90-year-old mother recently moved to an apartment and gave me her home as a gift. As I have a place of my own I'm thinking of selling the home and banking the money. What tax will I have to pay on the money I receive from the sale?"

A. None. Your mother must have paid a gift tax when she gave the house to you. But you, as the recipient, don't have to pay any taxes on the money you receive since the house was a gift to you.

Q. "I was shocked at the advice you gave that 66-year-old widow who asked if she should grab a chance to move into her church's new home for elders. You said as long as she was healthy to stay on her own. But what if she loses her health in a few years? Then there may be no space for her at the home."

A. We shouldn't cross such bridges until we come to them. It's a debilitating experience for the average healthy elder to move into the sheltered atmosphere of an old folks' home. It's much wiser to continue on your own as long as possible.

Q. "We've just retired and moved to Florida. Last Sunday we went to the pier to take a ride on a big catamaran sailboat. A big sign said, "Life jackets required for children under 16 and folks past 65. I was furious. Do you blame me?"

A. No need to get furious just because someone is concerned about your safety. You may swim like a dolphin but you'll have to admit most folks past 65 would sink like rocks if flung into the water. If I were taking passengers out in a sailboat I'd require life preservers for everyone regardless of age.

Q. "After years of taking my car to a regular garage for repairs, I found a 72-year-old mechanic who has a small shop behind his home. He charges me half what the big garage charges, does better work and is a lot more pleasant to deal with. Couldn't lots of retired mechanics and specialists set themselves up in business at home and help meet community needs?"

A. Sure they could.

Stiff Contact With Guerrillas Is Stirred Up By Americans

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—Probing U.S. troops stirred up stiff contact with the Viet Cong Friday in two coastal sectors 80 miles apart. The operations were part of an allied effort to draw some substantial communist force into a showdown.

Helicopters dropped elements of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division into a fight north of Bong Son, about 300 miles northeast of Saigon. The troopers radioed word they were put under heavy small arms fire as they landed.

Down the coast, guerrillas loosed rifles, automatic weapons and mortars at men of the 1st Brigade of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division seven miles north of Tuy Hoa. The troopers advanced against heavy opposition. A noon report said fighting was sporadic but continuing.

Operation Masher

The air cavalry alignment includes units involved last November in a successful battle against North Vietnamese regulars in the Ia Drang Valley of the central highlands. They were in the third day of Operation Masher, which had yielded 37 Viet Cong killed and six captured in its opening phases.

South Vietnamese troops and South Korean marines were lined up with the 101st Airborne in the Tuy Hoa sector drive, called Operation Van Buren.

The U.S. military command announced the toll of American armed forces in Viet Nam has risen to 197,000 with the arrival of the last elements of the 25th Infantry Division's two brigades. In addition, 56,000 men are with the U.S. 7th Fleet at sea.

Lull In 6th Week

The moratorium of the U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam entered its sixth week. Though Washington sources expected that President Johnson would order the bombing resumed, no specific date was cited.

Egyptian sources said their government has decided to abandon mediation efforts. They said North Vietnamese Ambassador Nguyen Xuan notified foreign ministry officials in Cairo Thursday that Hanoi refused to entertain peace overtures.

Pope Paul VI, however, was reported pursuing the personal drive he launched in December. Vatican sources said his envoys were carrying on quiet diplomatic consultations in several foreign countries in the quest for world peace.

In Seoul, South Korean Defense Minister Kim Sung-Eun told national assemblymen "there is a strong need" for more foreign troops in South Viet Nam. He said, however, that South Korea, which is represented by a 20,000-man expeditionary force, has no plan at the moment to send additional men.

Counseling Increase Set For Youth Corps

Neighborhood Youth Corps program proposals for summer and the school year 1966-67 were outlined to members of the NYC advisory committee in a meeting here Friday.

Increased counseling at regular intervals with school advisers and vocational consultants will be offered throughout the work experience, coordinator Robert Buckner said. The Economic Opportunity Act project employs students 16 to 22 years of age from low income families.

Youth Corps heads anticipate a $91,000 program for the summer employing some 200 students 32 hours per week for 8 weeks.

However, Buckner explained, the project has enough federal funds left over from the 1965-66 program to finance the summer section since only half the expected number of students were employed. Lincoln, he said, instead of requesting funds for the summer program, probably will ask for an extension and modification of its present system.

Several new jobs and new employers are being considered for the proposed programs. Advisory committee members expressed a great deal of interest in camping assistants positions, pointing out that the job would provide an enjoyable experience for the disadvantaged student, in addition to salary and work opportunity.

The proposed 1966-67 school year youth corps would employ 275 students, Buckner told the group, indicating that hours per week has been raised to 12 instead of 10.

Committee members generally approved Buckner's program proposals which, he said, will be incorporated into NYC's formal application for approval by the board of education before it is submitted to the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Nationalist China Aid From U.S. Over $1.4 Billion

Taipei, Formosa (AP) — U.S. economic aid to Nationalist China in the 15 years up to last June 30 amounted to $1.492 billion, reported Gerald H. Huffman, representative here of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

He said the figure included amounts en route on that date when aid was officially terminated.

Senate Bid For O'Brien?

Washington (AP) — Politician Lawrence F. O'Brien, postmaster general less than three months, is reliably reported to be ready and willing to run for the U.S. Senate this year in his native Massachusetts.

But those most familiar with his thinking said Friday he will do so only if an honest draft develops and if he is endorsed by the state Democratic convention in June.

To the public, O'Brien says only, "I am not seeking any political office."

But privately—and with the reported quiet urging of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass. —the 48-year-old legislative handyman to Presidents John F. Kennedy and Johnson is said do be ready to make the move if the call comes.

Lottery Suspension

Des Moines (UPI)—The Iowa Liquor Control Commission announced that the liquor license held by Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 579 in Burlington will be suspended for 10 days because lottery tickets were found on the premises.

Arraignment Delayed For Grocery Stores

Judge Richard O. Johnson set the hearings for 10:30 a.m.

The two businesses named in the complaints, filed by Assistant City Atty. Fred Swihart, were King Dollar, Inc., 821 No. 27th, and Klein's IGA Market, 815 So. 11th.

Along with its application for continuance, King Dollar filed a motion to quash. Judge Johnson set the hearing on King Dollar's motion to quash to coincide with the Feb. 10 arraignment proceedings.

Specifically, the complaints filed by Swihart charged the stores with selling milk "enclosed in a container which was not plainly labeled or marked with the grade of its contents" in violation of the city's Grade A milk ordinance.

The current complaints stem from a report by Dr. George Underwood, director of the City-County Health Department, that the department on Jan. 12 and Jan. 24 picked up from the stores two one-half gallons of milk that carried no Grade A designation and that did not name the source of the milk.

The milk containers also carried permit numbers that were not official as far as his office was concerned, Dr. Underwood reported.

Probe Of Truck In River Awaits Warm Weather

Omaha (AP)—A search of the Missouri River to see if a submerged pickup truck contains bodies will have to wait until warmer weather.

A scuba diving team from Offutt Air Force Base spent several hours in the river probing an area near the Metropolitan Utilities District water intake and located a vehicle.

The divers were handicapped by frigid water, ice floes and the fact that each time a hole was cut for them to go through, thick slush formed immediately.

With ropes tied around their waists, the divers slid into the water up to their necks and probed the side and parts of the interior of the cab with their feet. They were unable to determine if anyone had been in it.

Stiff Contact With Guerrillas Is Stirred Up By Americans

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—Probing U.S. troops stirred up stiff contact with the Viet Cong Friday in two coastal sectors 80 miles apart. The operations were part of an allied effort to draw some substantial communist force into a showdown.

Helicopters dropped elements of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division into a fight north of Bong Son, about 300 miles northeast of Saigon. The troopers radioed word they were put under heavy small arms fire as they landed.

Down the coast, guerrillas loosed rifles, automatic weapons and mortars at men of the 1st Brigade of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division seven miles north of Tuy Hoa. The troopers advanced against heavy opposition. A noon report said fighting was sporadic but continuing.

Operation Masher

The air cavalry alignment includes units involved last November in a successful battle against North Vietnamese regulars in the Ia Drang Valley of the central highlands. They were in the third day of Operation Masher, which had yielded 37 Viet Cong killed and six captured in its opening phases.

South Vietnamese troops and South Korean marines were lined up with the 101st Airborne in the Tuy Hoa sector drive, called Operation Van Buren.

The U.S. military command announced the toll of American armed forces in Viet Nam has risen to 197,000 with the arrival of the last elements of the 25th Infantry Division's two brigades. In addition, 56,000 men are with the U.S. 7th Fleet at sea.

Lull In 6th Week

The moratorium of the U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam entered its sixth week. Though Washington sources expected that President Johnson would order the bombing resumed, no specific date was cited.

Egyptian sources said their government has decided to abandon mediation efforts. They said North Vietnamese Ambassador Nguyen Xuan notified foreign ministry officials in Cairo Thursday that Hanoi refused to entertain peace overtures.

Pope Paul VI, however, was reported pursuing the personal drive he launched in December. Vatican sources said his envoys were carrying on quiet diplomatic consultations in several foreign countries in the quest for world peace.

In Seoul, South Korean Defense Minister Kim Sung-Eun told national assemblymen "there is a strong need" for more foreign troops in South Viet Nam. He said, however, that South Korea, which is represented by a 20,000-man expeditionary force, has no plan at the moment to send additional men.

Counseling Increase Set For Youth Corps

Neighborhood Youth Corps program proposals for summer and the school year 1966-67 were outlined to members of the NYC advisory committee in a meeting here Friday.

Increased counseling at regular intervals with school advisers and vocational consultants will be offered throughout the work experience, coordinator Robert Buckner said. The Economic Opportunity Act project employs students 16 to 22 years of age from low income families.

Youth Corps heads anticipate a $91,000 program for the summer employing some 200 students 32 hours per week for 8 weeks.

However, Buckner explained, the project has enough federal funds left over from the 1965-66 program to finance the summer section since only half the expected number of students were employed. Lincoln, he said, instead of requesting funds for the summer program, probably will ask for an extension and modification of its present system.

Several new jobs and new employers are being considered for the proposed programs. Advisory committee members expressed a great deal of interest in camping assistants positions, pointing out that the job would provide an enjoyable experience for the disadvantaged student, in addition to salary and work opportunity.

The proposed 1966-67 school year youth corps would employ 275 students, Buckner told the group, indicating that hours per week has been raised to 12 instead of 10.

Committee members generally approved Buckner's program proposals which, he said, will be incorporated into NYC's formal application for approval by the board of education before it is submitted to the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Nationalist China Aid From U.S. Over $1.4 Billion

Taipei, Formosa (AP) — U.S. economic aid to Nationalist China in the 15 years up to last June 30 amounted to $1.492 billion, reported Gerald H. Huffman, representative here of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

He said the figure included amounts en route on that date when aid was officially terminated.

Senate Bid For O'Brien?

Washington (AP) — Politician Lawrence F. O'Brien, postmaster general less than three months, is reliably reported to be ready and willing to run for the U.S. Senate this year in his native Massachusetts.

But those most familiar with his thinking said Friday he will do so only if an honest draft develops and if he is endorsed by the state Democratic convention in June.

To the public, O'Brien says only, "I am not seeking any political office."

But privately—and with the reported quiet urging of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.—the 48-year-old legislative handyman to Presidents John F. Kennedy and Johnson is said do be ready to make the move if the call comes.

Lottery Suspension

Des Moines (UPI)—The Iowa Liquor Control Commission announced that the liquor license held by Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 579 in Burlington will be suspended for 10 days because lottery tickets were found on the premises.

Arraignment Delayed For Grocery Stores

Judge Richard O. Johnson set the hearings for 10:30 a.m.

The two businesses named in the complaints, filed by Assistant City Atty. Fred Swihart, were King Dollar, Inc., 821 No. 27th, and Klein's IGA Market, 815 So. 11th.

Along with its application for continuance, King Dollar filed a motion to quash. Judge Johnson set the hearing on King Dollar's motion to quash to coincide with the Feb. 10 arraignment proceedings.

Specifically, the complaints filed by Swihart charged the stores with selling milk "enclosed in a container which was not plainly labeled or marked with the grade of its contents" in violation of the city's Grade A milk ordinance.

The current complaints stem from a report by Dr. George Underwood, director of the City-County Health Department, that the department on Jan. 12 and Jan. 24 picked up from the stores two one-half gallons of milk that carried no Grade A designation and that did not name the source of the milk.

The milk containers also carried permit numbers that were not official as far as his office was concerned, Dr. Underwood reported.

Here men give evidence of some deep, deep decisions. They are casting their lots for God. In a heart-to-heart talk a father gives his witness for the deepest faith he possesses. He has been successful in business because he kept the approval of his God. Now he wants to know from his sons if he can count on them to perpetuate the integrity, justice and godliness which marked the history of his business. God wants to know that of you, too, Mister. This is a moment of high decision with these men. Maybe you are making important decisions too. One thing for sure... your success will be greater when God is your Senior Partner. If you are "For God" you will attend His church and support His cause on earth... be For God.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

In a heart-to-heart talk a father gives his witness for the deepest faith he possesses. He has been successful in business because he kept the approval of his God. Now he wants to know from his sons if he can count on them to perpetuate the integrity, justice and godliness which marked the history of his business. God wants to know that of you, too, Mister. This is a moment of high decision with these men. Maybe you are making important decisions too. One thing for sure . . . your success will be greater when God is your Senior Partner. If you are "For God" you will attend His church and support His cause on earth . . . be For God.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

COED
was bride on Friday

For the wedding of Miss Jane Ellen Johnsen and James L. McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McKee, which took place Friday evening, Jan. 28, clusters of lighted white candles and bouquets of chrysanthemums decorated the chancel of Eastridge Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Thomas Hustable read the lines of the 8 o'clock service.

The attendants, who wore long-skirted frocks of royal blue taffeta and carried white chrysanthemums, were Mrs. Gerald Lisby, as the matron of honor; Miss Sara Johnsen, the maid of honor; and the bridesmaid, Miss Linda Cleveland.

David Shepherd served Mr. McKee as best man, and the ushers were Robert Covolik and Terry McKee.

The bride selected white silk taffeta for her wedding gown. Appliques of Alencon lace and pearl embroidery detailed the long-sleeved bodice, designed with a rounding neckline, and the jeweled lace also trimmed the bouffant skirt which continued into a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was held by a pearl crown, and she carried white orchids.

Mr. McKee, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and his bride will reside at 158 Lakewood Dr. Mrs. McKee attended Jamestown College, Jamestown, N.D., and is a senior at the University of Nebraska.

TALK
of the town

We mentioned the other day that Mrs. Willard Yates of Carmel would be arriving in Lincoln late this week. Mrs. Yates came on Thursday and scarcely had time to catch her breath before the courtesies began.

On Friday the visitor was complimented by Mrs. Herbert E. Gooch who was a luncheon hostess at her home.

And today Mrs. Yates is the incentive for another luncheon when Mrs. Thomas C. Woods will entertain a small group of guests at her home.

• • •

If time seems to be hanging heavily on your hands we suggest you contact a couple of birthday clubs whose members have a full party calendar for the month of February — and even into March.

On of the birthday celebrants is Mrs. B. F. Sheehan whose anniversary was Thursday of this week. The birthday club party was to have been held next Tuesday with Mrs. H. G. Weishel as hostess. The celebration, however, has been postponed until Tuesday, Feb. 15.

But there is a party on Feb. 1, however, for another birthday anniversary. This one belongs to Mrs. Dee Eiche whose hostess will be Mrs. Ruth Gibson.

• • •

Planned for Tuesday, Feb. 8, was Mrs. B. O. Campbell's birthday party for Miss Amy Reed. But it also has been postponed. So, the club members will sing 'happy birthday' to Miss Reed on Tuesday, Feb. 22—with Mrs. Campbell still the hostess, of course.

• • •

Then comes March 1. That is Mrs. Ralph Campbell's birthday and inviting members of Mrs. Campbell's birthday club to celebrate the occasion will be Mrs. John T. McGreer.

But there is another group planning a celebration for Mrs. Campbell—The party date is March 15, and the hostess is Mrs. F. H. Deurmeyer.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Trease announce the birth of a daughter, Karri Jo, on Monday, Jan. 24. The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Reed of Orchard. Mrs. Dorothy Trease, also of Orchard, is the paternal grandmother.

NEWS
of the suburban areas

There are a number of interesting events planned for the coming week, and it seems quite unlikely that even Mr. Winter's coldest will postpone these activities.

COTNER TERRACE

Young Lori Karr, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Karr, isn't so very young after all, for Friday, Jan. 28, was Lori's 10th birthday. This afternoon Lori and five feminine friends will celebrate the event with a roller skating party followed by refreshments at the Karr residence. The party-goers will include Betty Schuldt, Lori Swanson, Cynthia Mahlman, Christie Sumption, and Terry Kloeskorn.

Earlier in the week — on Thursday — Mrs. James Schlegelmilch was hostess at a coffee at her home in honor of Mrs. Darrell Karr. Hostess and guests, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Dwayne Stauffer, and Mrs. Clifford, presented the honoree with a homemade-cookie shower in appreciation of the foods that Mrs. Karr had prepared for them during the year.

MEADOW LANE

There will be some sad farewells and exiciting hellos in this suburban area Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, when Mrs. Glenn Gubser entertains in honor of Mrs. W. L. Case, a departing resident, and Mrs. Rudolph Bartek, a suburban newcomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Case and their daughter, Sharon, will be leaving in March for a new home in Bloomington, Ill. The Case's home territory is in southwest Iowa, and now after moving west to Lincoln, the family is traveling exactly the same number of miles from home — only this time it's east to Illinois.

Last Saturday evening a neighborhood bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bagley for its monthly get-together. The two tables of players included Mr. and Mrs. Don Burzlaff, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mather, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Case.

While our cold winter has been curtailing many suburban activities, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Gregg Waldo have been in a whirl of traveling and visiting—but of course their activities have taken place in a warmer climate — Florida!

Col. and Mrs. Waldo left for Miami on Dec. 26 and spent the New Year's attending the Orange Bowl, as the guests of former Lincoln residents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Todd, of Ft. Lauderdale. But after the football excitement had died down, the twosome continued their vacation in Brandenton as the house guests of Col. and Mrs. Mark Rishe.

As the sun continued shining and the warm breezes blowing the Lincoln couple drove to Sarasota to visit with a Lincoln resident who makes Florida her winter home, Mrs. Clinton Leonard. The last stop on the travel trail was Ft. Leonard and visits with many service friends.

The icy Nebraska climate welcomed the Waldos home last Friday.

The travel bug also bit Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Kucera and their children, Conald, Terry, and Gerald, — so they motored to Brainard last Sunday to visit with Mrs. Kucera's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dvorak.

EASTRIDGE

Two birthdays to celebrate made it quite a Saturday evening as Mr. and Mrs. John Robel and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Robinson took an evening out to dinner. The anniversaries belonged to the two masculine members of the party — Mr. Robel's birthday being Jan. 22, and Mr. Robinson's being the next day, Sunday, Jan. 23.

Entertaining at an informal Friday evening party for her Pius High School friends was Miss Carol Winter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winter. Carol's party was highlighted by music from the Minutemen Combo, including young suburban residents Dave Robel, Jere Jacoby, Bob Hunter, Lavonne Cassebaum, and John Brown.

SKYLINE TERRACE

Hostessing a baby shower in honor of Mrs. Francis Arthur on Thursday evening will be Mrs. Clark Peterson. Guests will include 12 Skyline Terrace residents.

CHOSE evening ceremony

Arrangements of lighted white candles and greenery formed the background in the Seventh-Day Adventist Church at Arlington, Calif., for the marriage of Miss Linda Louise McArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur of Lincoln, to William (Skip) MacCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meeks of Twentynine Palms, Calif., on Thursday, Jan. 27. The ceremony was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock by Dr. J. L. Haussler, faculty member of La Sierra, Calif., College.

Wearing long-skirted sheaths of velvet in Caribbean pink were Miss Betty Fox of Ontario, Calif., the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Myrtianne Westcott, San Quentin, Calif., and Miss Sandy Lorenz, Thousand Oaks, Calif.

Don Bobst of Willows, Calif., served as best man, and the groomsmen were Bob Schoberth, La Sierra, Calif.; Clyde Evans, Dinuba, Calif., and Benjamin McArthur, Lincoln, brother of the bride.

The bride chose for her wedding a sheath gown of white silk organza over taffeta, covered by a redingote of white Chantilly lace and organza. Designed with a snugly buttoned basque, the redingote continued into a whisper train, and her veil of silk tulle was held by a cap of jeweled organza petals. She carried a white satin and lace-covered Bible and a single, long-stemmed white rose.

Mr. and Mrs. MacCarty will be June graduates of La Sierra College, where the bridegroom serves as president of the Associated Students. The bride has attended Union College, Lincoln, and Pacific Union College, Angwin, Calif.

Sub-zero temperatures certainly are not conducive to a partying spirit among the town's residents, but January's frigid air seems to have no effect whatever on the busy round of prenuptial courtesies which are keeping the brides-elect, their families and friends, busy these mid-winter days.

A bride-elect of late January who was honored at a prenuptial courtesy recently is Miss Jennifer Goble whose marriage to Donald Spangler will be solemnized this afternoon at St. Paul Methodist Church.

Honoring Miss Goble was Mrs. Clarence Adams who entertained Friday evening, Jan. 21, at her home. Twenty-four guests were invited for an informal evening and presented a miscellaneous shower to the honoree.

A prenuptial courtesy to be held Saturday evening will honor Miss Gaylia Ann Casady and her fiance, Harold Merle Johnson, Jr., whose wedding will be an event of Sunday afternoon.

Honoring their daughter and Mr. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Casady will be host and hostess at dinner at the Congress Inn. The guest list will include Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Johnson of Johnstown, other family members and members of the bridal party.

The wedding of Miss Casady and Mr. Johnson will take place at a 3 o'clock ceremony to be solemnized at Trinity Methodist Church.

The series of courtesies honoring Miss Susan Sweeney are continuing in the weeks immediately preceding her marriage to Douglas Barrett, which will take place on Saturday, Feb. 12.

Honoring the soon-to-be bride on Wednesday evening, Jan. 19, were Miss Peggy Wagner and Miss Nancy Wagner who were hostesses to a group of guests at their home. A personal shower was presented to Miss Sweeney during the party.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sweeney, the bride-elect has chosen her sister, Miss Mary Sweeney, as her honor attendant for the ceremony, which will be solemnized at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at St. Teresa's Church.

Her bridesmaids will be Miss Tammy Miers and Miss Leslie Childs.

Tom Barrett will serve his brother as best man, and the groomsmen will be Steve Lucas and Bob Schneider.

Opening lead — queen of hearts.

Jordan was South, playing six diamonds, and West led a heart. East took the king with the ace and returned a heart, which South ruffed.

Jordan now played the ace and another diamond, West following low, and was then faced with the problem of whether or not to finesse. It is true, mathematically, that declarer does best in the long run by playing to drop the queen rather than finesse, but Jordan in this case elected to finesse.

When the finesse succeeded, he cashed two more trumps to produce this position:

Jordan now led the jack of diamonds and East was squeezed. Regardless of what he discarded, South was bound to make the rest.

It was certainly no accident that Jordan chose to take the diamond finesse. He had good reason to do so. He knew that the hand could scarcely be made except with the aid of a squeeze, and he therefore mentally had to assign one defender a holding of four spades and three clubs.

He had already judged from the opponents' silence during the bidding that their hearts were divided 5-5.

Consequently, when West followed to the second diamond lead. Jordan could not assume a 2-2 trump division —that would mean that East had six black cards instead of seven and make a squeeze inoperable. Jordan therefore placed East with the seven black cards necessary, and hence, a singleton diamond. The finesse succeeding Jordan easily made the rest.

ABBY

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband worked in his father's business for 25 years as a salaried employee. He was an only son, and his father always told him that when he (Pop) retired, the business would be my husband's. Five weeks before Pop's 65th birthday, which was to be his retirement date, the business burned down, leaving my husband unemployed at the age of 43. When the fire sale was completed and the property disposed of, my husband held out his hand for his "share." His father asked, "Did you put any money into the business?"

Of course, the answer was no. But, Abby, my husband put 25 years into it! And this is the same business that was going to be his in five weeks. What do you think of a deal like this?

FORT DODGE, IOWA

DEAR FORT DODGE: I think your husband "got the business."

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My wife reads your column religiously and I read it when she makes me. She has a 51-year-old brother we think should be married. He is good-looking, dresses well, drives an expensive car, has a secure job, money in the bank and a pleasing personality. There is nothing wrong with him, Abby. We have fixed him up with lots of dates. He always enjoys himself, but unless someone arranges a date for him he is just as happy being without one. I thought maybe you had a list of Lonely Hearts' Clubs we could draw from. We don't know any more eligible ladies he hasn't taken out. Thank you.

WANTING TO HELP

DEAR WANTING: Show me a good-looking, 51-year-old bachelor with a secure job, pleasing personality, money in the bank, who dresses well and drives an expensive car, and I'll show you a man who can find his own wife. If he wants one, that is.

Honored At Dinner

An honored guest Friday evening was Miss Etta Blaisdell, who has served as medical secretary for the Lincoln Clinic for the past 45 years.

Miss Blaisdell was honored at dinner Friday evening at the University Club, and the 50 guests attending included doctors, all employes of the clinic office and technical staff.

Winter Wedding

Miss Jane Powell of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Powell of Grand Island, became the bride of Kenneth L. Johnson, son of Mrs. Edward O. Johnson of Kennebec, S.D., at a 7:30 o'clock service Friday evening, Jan. 28. Arrangements of white blossoms decorated the candlelighted chancel of Grace Lutheran Church for the ceremony, which was solemnized by the Rev. Roy E. Benson, and Dr. Raymond H. Haggh, organist, played the wedding music. The vocalist was John M. Sipma.

The maid of honor and bride's only attendant was Miss Una Lange.

William J. Bailey, Jr., served as best man, and seating the guests were William E. Powell of Columbus, and Edgar C. Decker.

The bride appeared in a sheath ensemble in the antique white tone, designed in the after-five mode. Tiny jeweled buttons detailed the jacket, which was fashioned with bracelet sleeves, and a pillbox cap in white held her illusion veil. She carried an arrangement of pink sweetheart roses and white pompon chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home at 1975 Washington. A member of the Lincoln Schools faculty, the bride attended Midland College, Fremont, and the University of Nebraska. Mr. Johnson, who is section chief with the State Game Commission, is a former student at the University of Missouri in Columbia, and Western Illinois University, Macomb, Ill.

Opening lead — queen of hearts.

Jordan was South, playing six diamonds, and West led a heart. East took the king with the ace and returned a heart, which South ruffed.

Jordan now played the ace and another diamond, West following low, and was then faced with the problem of whether or not to finesse. It is true, mathematically, that declarer does best in the long run by playing to drop the queen rather than finesse, but Jordan in this case elected to finesse.

When the finesse succeeded, he cashed two more trumps to produce this position:

Jordan therefore placed East with the seven black cards necessary, and hence, a singleton diamond. The finesse succeeding Jordan easily made the rest.

WESLEYAN EDGES BEAVERS

—BRAVES TO MOVE—

Court's Ruling To Be Ignored

New York (AP) — President Warren Giles of the National League said Friday the league has authorized the Braves to fulfill their obligation to Atlanta and disregard a Wisconsin court order that instructed the Braves to prepare to play in Milwaukee this season.

Following a three-hour meeting of NL club owners, Giles said the league intends to comply with the order of a Georgia court which said the Braves must fulfill their contract with the Atlanta Stadium Authority.

"The league expects the Braves to fulfill the 25-year lease in Atlanta," Giles said.

The league, Giles said, believes the Milwaukee County court has no power to grant "the very extraordinary and unprecedented injunctions requested by the Wisconsin Attorney General which would require the Braves to remain in Milwaukee and to be held there as hostage until the National League expands under a plan dictated by the court.

"The National League intends vigorously to resist the Wisconsin action and has complete confidence that it will ultimately prevail."

Just 24 hours before, Judge Elmer Roller of Milwaukee County Circuit Court ordered the Braves to make tentative plans to play their 1966 home games in Milwaukee rather than Atlanta. He also ordered the league to prepare an expansion plan which would include a Milwaukee franchise.

Judge Roller, after hearing Giles' statement, said "I'm not making any comment at all."

Steven Keane, special counsel for Wisconsin in the case, said "It is a matter of persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of the court deciding whether they are going to obey it.

"There have been other people who have decided to disregard orders of courts before. Sometimes it has turned out good for them and sometimes it has turned out badly. Let's see what happens here."

Keane gave no indication of what Wisconsin's next move might be, but one state official said "If what I hear is true and they are defying an order of the court, I assume an attempt will be made in court very soon to try to enforce the order. I have some feeling that the courts of Wisconsin will not be quote—defied—closed quote."

—UNI HIGH WINS 55-48—

Last Period Tutor Rally Beats Seward

Seward—Seemingly out of it after three quarters, poised University High perked up its offense in the final period in time to get a 55-48 rallying victory over Seward here Friday night.

Down 37-24 with three minutes left in the third quarter, Dennis Beckmann led a burst which put the Tutors within reach, 40-31, going into a blazing final push in the last period.

Jerry Schultz, who had 24 for the night, hit six fielders and three free throws while the Tutors were accumulating 24 points and the Bluejays' shooting eyes were chilling.

From 42-33 with Seward still in the lead, Schultz scored a 15-foot jumper, a long set, a a free throw, a layup and another set, which brought the Tutors to a 44-43 lead with 3:29 to play. Beckmann had two free throws to complete that 11-point spree.

Seward's Larry Beckler quickly hit a free throw shortly after but Schultz' two free throws and a short jump shot during a freeze in which the Tutors sacked it up. Alex Fischer had three-game ending fielders which kept the Bluejays in a hurried state.

The hosts worked for six-point leads through the first half. Their press kept Uni on edge at times. But coach Dale Snook's outfit whittled away, and Beckmann's two charities made it 20-18 Seward with 2:15 to go in the first half.

But Seward crept away during the third period when Dave Skolnik popped three two-pointers to give his team that 37-24 lead. From there, the Tutors flurried to their eighth victory in nine starts and an 8-3 season record. Seward is 5-6.

Cowboys Dominate Lincoln High, 65-38

Omaha — Powerful Boys Town took command in the first quarter and never faltered in mastering Lincoln High, 65-38, Friday night.

George Pfeifer's Cowboys were led by 6-4 forward Ron White who potted 26 points, all from the field.

The Links were never in contention in the lopsided contest as the Cowboy's height proved too much of an advantage for the shorter Capital City team.

White got able support from Ken Geddes, who collected 11, and seven other Boys Town players, as all but one Cowboy managed to score.

Mike Casmer was the only bright spot in the feeble Lincoln High attack as he consistently outrebounded the taller Cowboys and totaled eight points.

Both teams were ice-cold from the charity stripe as Boys Town could manage only five of 18 for 28%, while the Links hit on four of 10 for 40%.

Macalaster Beats NU Swimmers

St. Paul, Minn.—Macalaster College swimmers won the final relay by eight-tenths of a second and won a dual meet over the Husker tankmen, 62-43, Friday night.

Tom Nickerson, Keefe Lodwig won the 200-yard, and 60-yard free styles for the Nebraska team. Jon Burchill took an easy victory in the 200-yard butterfly. Dave Frank also picked up a win for the Husker squad in the 200-yard individual medley.

Rockets Paste Southeast, 74-47

. . . NORTHEAST CAPITALIZES ON KNIGHTS' COLD SHOOTING

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

Lincoln Northeast, the state's second-ranked basketball team, took advantage of a smaller Lincoln Southeast's game-long cold shooting, to gain a 74-47 intra-city victory at Pershing Municipal Auditorium Friday night.

The Rockets stormed to a 19-7 first-quarter lead, paced by Wally Winter's seven-point effort, to put Southeast in a situation from which it could not recover.

Southeast's inability to score gave Northeast an 11-2 margin before the Knights began to show signs of putting up a struggle.

In a minute's time, the Knights were back within four points, the closest they could come the rest of the evening, 11-7. But then the lid went back on the Southeast basket, the Rocket defense shutting them out the rest of the period.

In fact, over two minutes elapsed in the second quarter before the Knights could score, Northeast constructing a comfortable 28-8 margin.

By the intermission, Northeast was solidly entrenched in the winner's circle, leading conspiciously, 50-16.

At the start of the final half, the Knights looked like they might be ready to make a fight out of it, getting the tipoff and breaking downcourt for a fast bucket, and proceeded to close the gap slowly.

But the Rockets again suppressed any thought of a rally by retaliating with Winter, John Brown, and Jack Ketterer, who, despite a full-court press by the Knights, slammed in enough two-pointers to give Northeast a 64-33 third quarter lead going into the final eight minutes.

The Knights outscored their cross-town rivals during the final period, 14-10, but with a 31 point deficit to make up, the four-point fourth quarter difference, didn't cut the lead much.

The Rockets started 6-7 Cliff Livingston, while Brown and Winter each stretch 6-4, and the final regular is 6-3 Paul Topliff, making it tough for the Knights to rebound and get too many extra shots off.

Winter spearheaded the Northeast scoring, canning 20 points for the evening. Ketterer finished with 16, and Brown added 15 for the Rockets, while Southeast's top man was Bill Guilford, who picked up 10, followed by Deitemeyer's nine-point effort.

It was the ninth victory against only one defeat for the second-ranked Rockets, whose next game will be against Grand Island. The Knights are currently 3-7 moving into tonight's contest at North Platte.

Lincoln Teams Make Sweep Of Trans-Nebraska Crowns

. . . TITLE APIECE FOR NE, SE, LINCOLN HIGH

By DON FORSYTHE
Prep Sports Writer

Capital City teams made their second sweep of Trans-Nebraska Conference winter sports championships Friday as Lincoln High, Southeast and Northeast won titles in wrestling, swimming and gymnastics, respecitively.

As expected, the wrestling meet held at Johnson Gym provided the most spirited competition. Lincoln High's margin over defending champion Southeast was a slim 79-78. North Platte nipped Northeast, 68-67, for the No. 3 spot.

See Summaries, Page 12

Heading the list was 112-pound Mike Knaub, one of two individual champions earning repeat honors. He had won in the same weight class last year. Ken Braun (127), Steve Colborn (145) and Larry Lyons (165) also claimed titles for the Links.

Hastings' John Barrows stayed unbeaten for the season as he captured the 103-pound title. He was champion at 95 pounds a year ago.

Meier was ousted in the semifinals by Hastings' Dan Barrows, 5-4, then came back to whip Southeast's top-seeded Mike Shelley, 8-1, for third place in the tough 138-pound division.

Schmidt and Wright were among the record breakers. Schmidt lowered his backstroke mark from 1:00.0 :59.0 and Wright won the distance test in 4:29.4 after a 4:34.5 mark last year.

Wright (2:01.7) also bettered his existing record of 2:03.3 in the 200-yard freestyle, but had to settle for second place behind an excellent 1:59.0 clocking by Lincoln High's King Little.

He swam the 200-yard individual medley in 2:12.1, nearly a second better than the mark set by Gregg Wright last year and then came back to clip two seconds off John Tidball's breaststroke record with a 1:06.7 performance.

There were no repeat champions in gymnastics as Lincoln teams swept all seven first places.

Plainsmen Play Games Before Pulling Out Win

. . . BUENA VISTA BEATEN 90-86

A rangy crew from Storm Lake, Ia., Buena Vista had the Plainsmen down most of the first half and during a good share of the second. At one time in the opening 20 minutes, in fact, the Beavers' margin was 10 points.

Wesleyan clawed back from that deficit to snare a 44-44 halftime tie. Then the Plainsmen fell back again, and for awhile it looked like they might not get the job done against the taller Iowans.

Then, with eight minutes to play, Dwight Tietjen ignited the rally, taking a feed from Skip Peterson for a drive-in bucket which broke a 65-65 tie.

Buena Vista came back with a basket of its own, but Bill Nasi, Bob Vasatka and Peterson hit in succession for the Plainsmen.

Furman Rentz hit for the Beavers, but Tietjen offset that with a beauty from the front and Peterson dumped a pair of free throws for a 77-69 margin.

Two baskets by Nasi countered two by Rentz, and from there on it was just a matter of running out the clock. The Plainsmen went into a semi-stall with 4:45 to play, then went into their delay game for real with two minutes left. Two goals by Tietjen and three free throws down the stretch kept them comfortably in front.

Tietjen led Wesleyan with 25 points, the same total Cliff Mortenson hit for Buena Vista. Nasi and Peterson each added 15 as all five starters hit in double figures to produce the seventh Plainsmen victory against six defeats.

Buena Vista, now 3-13 for the year, got 20 points from Rentz, 17 from Marvin Brandts and 16 from Larry Biittner. But Wesleyan had more balance and more depth, particularly in the person of Dick Hahn, who came in when Nasi got in foul trouble and collected eight points.

Wesleyan, which shot at a chilly 36% pace from the field in the first half, warmed up enough to hike its percentage to 40 for the contest.

Buena Vista shot 41% for the route, but Wesleyan cast up 12 more shots and finished with four more goals.

The Beavers had a four-point edge from the foul line in a rough-and-tumble contest in which 44 fouls were called, 22 on each team.

Two Major Awards Are Sought Tonight

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

The Lincoln Association of Master Barbers can engrave the name "Roberts Dairy Boxing Club" on one Golden Gloves trophy today, but 24 fighters will be eyeing the other two major trophies to be given at tonight's Southeast District Golden Gloves Championships.

The program will open at the State Fairgrounds Exposition Building at 8 p.m. with Midwest Speedways Boxing Club teammates Dave Hill and Dan Oldfield tangling in a 135-pound semifinal bout.

Twenty-four fights later heavyweight finalists Ed Pavoris and Stan Grell, both of Roberts Dairy stable, will end the tournament.

The Roberts Dairy stable, with Larry Emery in the corner, has sacked up the team trophy with both 112-pound finalists and both heavyweight finalists wearing the green and white colors.

The team victory is Emery's 14th in 15 years, a string that started when he put his gloves on the shelf and began teaching others.

Those making a solid bid for that trophy in Thursday night's opening round action were 118-pounder Tim Cox of Roberts, 147-pounder Roger Sherwood of the Ted White Boxing Club, and 160-pounders John Kuebler of Roberts and Mike Fosdick of Midwest Speedways.

But these fithters are expected to face stiff challenges in the voting tonight from 126-pounder Tom Slocum of Roberts, 135-pounder Bob Gropp of Roberts, and heavyweights Grell and Pavoris.

The leading contender for this award going into tonight's bouts is L. C. Graham, a 112-pounder from Fairbury who withstood a heavy assault from veteran Bob Edwards of the Roberts camp in Thursday night's first round action.

An additional 500 seats are being set up at the Exposition Building for tonight's card after an estimated 1,150 braved the sub-zero temperatures for Thursday night's action.

Court's Ruling To Be Ignored

New York (AP) — President Warren Giles of the National League said Friday the league has authorized the Braves to fulfill their obligation to Atlanta and disregard a Wisconsin court order that instructed the Braves to prepare to play in Milwaukee this season.

Following a three-hour meeting of NL club owners, Giles said the league intends to comply with the order of a Georgia court which said the Braves must fulfill their contract with the Atlanta Stadium Authority.

"The league expects the Braves to fulfill the 25-year lease in Atlanta," Giles said.

The league, Giles said, believes the Milwaukee County court has no power to grant "the very extraordinary and unprecedented injunctions requested by the Wisconsin Attorney General which would require the Braves to remain in Milwaukee and to be held there as hostage until the National League expands under a plan dictated by the court.

"The National League intends vigorously to resist the Wisconsin action and has complete confidence that it will ultimately prevail."

Just 24 hours before, Judge Elmer Roller of Milwaukee County Circuit Court ordered the Braves to make tentative plans to play their 1966 home games in Milwaukee rather than Atlanta. He also ordered the league to prepare an expansion plan which would include a Milwaukee franchise.

Judge Roller, after hearing Giles' statement, said "I'm not making any comment at all."

Steven Keane, special counsel for Wisconsin in the case, said "It is a matter of persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of the court deciding whether they are going to obey it.

"There have been other people who have decided to disregard orders of courts before. Sometimes it has turned out good for them and sometimes it has turned out badly. Let's see what happens here."

Keane gave no indication of what Wisconsin's next move might be, but one state official said "If what I hear is true and they are defying an order of the court, I assume an attempt will be made in court very soon to try to enforce the order. I have some feeling that the courts of Wisconsin will not be quote—defied—closed quote."

Last Period Tutor Rally Beats Seward

Seward—Seemingly out of it after three quarters, poised University High perked up its offense in the final period in time to get a 55-48 rallying victory over Seward here Friday night.

Down 37-24 with three minutes left in the third quarter, Dennis Beckmann led a burst which put the Tutors within reach, 40-31, going into a blazing final push in the last period.

Jerry Schultz, who had 24 for the night, hit six fielders and three free throws while the Tutors were accumulating 24 points and the Bluejays' shooting eyes were chilling.

From 42-33 with Seward still in the lead, Schultz scored a 15-foot jumper, a long set, a free throw, a layup and another set, which brought the Tutors to a 44-43 lead with 3:29 to play. Beckmann had two free throws to complete that 11-point spree.

Seward's Larry Beckler qiuckly hit a free throw shortly after but Schultz' two free throws and a short jump shot during a freeze in which the Tutors sacked it up. Alex Fischer had three-game ending fielders which kept the Bluejays in a hurried state.

The hosts worked for six-point leads through the first half. Their press kept Uni on edge at times. But coach Dale Snook's outfit whittled away, and Beckmann's two charities made it 20-18 Seward with 2:15 to go in the first half.

But Seward crept away during the third period when Dave Skolnik popped three two-pointers to give his team that 37-24 lead. From there, the Tutors flurried to their eighth victory in nine starts and an 8-3 season record. Seward is 5-6.

Cowboys Dominate Lincoln High, 65-38

Omaha — Powerful Boys Town took command in the first quarter and never faltered in mastering Lincoln High, 65-38, Friday night.

George Pfeifer's Cowboys were led by 6-4 forward Ron White who potted 26 points, all from the field.

The Links were never in contention in the lopsided contest as the Cowboy's height proved too much of an advantage for the shorter Capital City team.

White got able support from Ken Geddes, who collected 11, and seven other Boys Town players, as all but one Cowboy managed to score.

Mike Casmer was the only bright spot in the feeble Lincoln High attack as he consistently outrebounded the taller Cowboys and totaled eight points.

Both teams were ice-cold from the charity stripe as Boys Town could manage only five of 18 for 28%, while the Links hit on four of 10 for 40%.

St. Paul, Minn.—Macalaster College swimmers won the final relay by eight-tenths of a second and won a dual meet over the Husker tankmen, 52-43, Friday night.

Tom Nickerson, Keefe Lodwig won the 200-yard, and 60-yard free styles for the Nebraska team. Jon Burchill took an easy victory in the 200-yard butterfly. Dave Frank also picked up a win for the Husker squad in the 200-yard individual medley.

Rockets Paste Southeast, 74-47

. . . NORTHEAST CAPITALIZES ON KNIGHTS' COLD SHOOTING

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

Lincoln Northeast, the state's second-ranked basketball team, took advantage of a smaller Lincoln Southeast's game-long cold shooting, to gain a 74-47 intra-city victory at Pershing Municipal Auditorium Friday night.

The Rockets stormed to a 19-7 first-quarter lead, paced by Wally Winter's seven-point effort, to put Southeast in a situation from which it could not recover.

In a minute's time, the Knights were back within four points, the closest they could come the rest of the evening, 11-7. But then the lid went back on the Southeast basket, the Rocket defense shutting them out the rest of the period.

By the intermission, Northeast was solidly entrenched in the winner's circle, leading conspiciously, 50-16.

At the start of the final half, the Knights looked like they might be ready to make a fight out of it, getting the tipoff and breaking downcourt for a fast bucket, and proceeded to close the gap slowly.

But the Rockets again suppressed any thought of a rally by retaliating with Winter, John Brown, and Jack Ketterer, who, despite a full-court press by the Knights, slammed in enough two-pointers to give Northeast a 64-33 third quarter lead going into the final eight minutes.

The Knights outscored their cross-town rivals during the final period, 14-10, but with a 31 point deficit to make up, the four-point fourth quarter difference, didn't cut the lead much.

The Rockets started 6-7 Cliff Livingston, while Brown and Winter each stretch 6-4, and the final regular is 6-3 Paul Topliff, making it tough for the Knights to rebound and get too many extra shots off.

Winter spearheaded the Northeast scoring, canning 20 points for the evening. Ketterer finished with 16, and Brown added 15 for the Rockets, while Southeast's top man was Bill Guilford, who picked up 10, followed by Deitemeyer's nine-point effort.

It was the ninth victory against only one defeat for the second-ranked Rockets, whose next game will be against Grand Island. The Knights are currently 3-7 moving into tonight's contest at North Platte.

Lincoln Teams Make Sweep Of Trans-Nebraska Crowns

. . . TITLE APIECE FOR NE, SE, LINCOLN HIGH

By DON FORSYTHE
Prep Sports Writer

Capital City teams made their second sweep of Trans-Nebraska Conference winter sports championships Friday as Lincoln High, Southeast and Northeast won titles in wrestling, swimming and gymnastics, respecitively.

As expected, the wrestling meet held at Johnson Gym provided the most spirited competition. Lincoln High's margin over defending champion Southeast was a slim 79-78. North Platte nipped Northeast, 68-67, for the No. 3 spot.

Heading the list was 112-pound Mike Knaub, one of two individual champions earning repeat honors. He had won in the same weight class last year. Ken Braun (127), Steve Colborn (145) and Larry Lyons (165) also claimed titles for the Links.

Meier was ousted in the semifinals by Hastings' Dan Barrows, 5-4, then came back to whip Southeast's top-seeded Mike Shelley, 8-1, for third place in the tough 138-pound division.

Schmidt and Wright were among the record breakers. Schmidt lowered his backstroke mark from 1:00.0 :59.0 and Wright won the distance test in 4:29.4 after a 4:34.5 mark last year.

Wright (2:01.7) also bettered his existing record of 2:03.3 in the 200-yard freestyle, but had to settle for second place behind an excellent 1:59.0 clocking by Lincoln High's King Little.

He swam the 200-yard individual medley in 2:12.1, nearly a second better than the mark set by Gregg Wright last year and then came back to clip two seconds off John Tidball's breaststroke record with a 1:06.7 performance.

There were no repeat champions in gymnastics as Lincoln teams swept all seven first places.

Plainsmen Play Games Before Pulling Out Win

. . . BUENA VISTA BEATEN 90-86

A rangy crew from Storm Lake, Ia., Buena Vista had the Plainsmen down most of the first half and during a good share of the second. At one time in the opening 20 minutes, in fact, the Beavers' margin was 10 points.

Wesleyan clawed back from that deficit to snare a 44-44 halftime tie. Then the Plainsmen fell back again, and for awhile it looked like they might not get the job done against the taller Iowans.

Then, with eight minutes to play, Dwight Tietjen ignited the rally, taking a feed from Skip Peterson for a drive-in bucket which broke a 65-65 tie.

Two baskets by Nasi countered two by Rentz, and from there on it was just a matter of running out the clock. The Plainsmen went into a semi-stall with 4:45 to play, then went into their delay game for real with two minutes left. Two goals by Tietjen and three free throws down the stretch kept them comfortably in front.

Tietjen led Wesleyan with 25 points, the same total Cliff Mortenson hit for Buena Vista. Nasi and Peterson each added 15 as all five starters hit in double figures to produce the seventh Plainsmen victory against six defeats.

Buena Vista, now 3-13 for the year, got 20 points from Rentz, 17 from Marvin Brandts and 16 from Larry Biittner. But Wesleyan had more balance and more depth, particularly in the person of Dick Hahn, who came in when Nasi got in foul trouble and collected eight points.

Wesleyan, which shot at a chilly 36% pace from the field in the first half, warmed up enough to hike its percentage to 40 for the contest.

Buena Vista shot 41% for the route, but Wesleyan cast up 12 more shots and finished with four more goals.

The Beavers had a four-point edge from the foul line in a rough-and-tumble contest in which 44 fouls were called, 22 on each team.

Wesleyan tries it again tonight, traveling to Seward to meet Concordia Teacher's College.

The Lincoln Association of Master Barbers can engrave the name "Roberts Dairy Boxing Club" on one Golden Gloves trophy today, but 24 fighters will be eyeing the other two major trophies to be given at tonight's Southeast District Golden Gloves Championships.

The program will open at the State Fairgrounds Exposition Building at 8 p.m. with Midwest Speedways Boxing Club teammates Dave Hill and Dan Oldfield tangling in a 135-pound semifinal bout.

Twenty-four fights later heavyweight finalists Ed Pavoris and Stan Grell, both of Roberts Dairy stable, will end the tournament.

The Roberts Dairy stable, with Larry Emery in the corner, has sacked up the team trophy with both 112-pound finalists and both heavyweight finalists wearing the green and white colors.

The team victory is Emery's 14th in 15 years, a string that started when he put his gloves on the shelf and began teaching others.

Those making a solid bid for that trophy in Thursday night's opening round action were 118-pounder Tim Cox of Roberts, 147-pounder Roger Sherwood of the Ted White Boxing Club, and 160-pounders John Kuebler of Roberts and Mike Fosdick of Midwest Speedways.

But these fithters are expected to face stiff challenges in the voting tonight from 126-pounder Tom Slocum of Roberts, 135-pounder Bob Gropp of Roberts, and heavyweights Grell and Pavoris.

The leading contender for this award going into tonight's bouts is L. C. Graham, a 112-pounder from Fairbury who withstood a heavy assault from veteran Bob Edwards of the Roberts camp in Thursday night's first round action.

Final Minutes Frantic In Nebraska City Win

. . . FINAL SHOT BY AUBURN NULLIFIED

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Nebraska City — It's a good thing the officials knew what was going on, because nobody else did during the last 10 seconds of Nebraska City's 63-62 conquest of Auburn.

The evenly-matched teams were deadlocked 62-62, and Byron Orton had just missed two free throws.

Wes Harrah came up with the ball for Nebraska City and was quickly fouled, but bedlam presided, and no one heard the whistle until Deloit Childers had lofted the ball into Auburn's net for what would have been his 32nd point of the evening as the clock ran out.

The Bulldogs and Pioneers had started out even-steven, and with 6:32 left it was still a 50-50 situation.

Then Chris Kohout garnered two free throws and a field goal in quick order for Nebraska City, only to have it matched by Jim Grant for Auburn on the same combination.

Childers, high scorer of the evening with 30, sank three straight field goals in the final minutes, and when little Dave Swinney sank two free throws to give Auburn a four-point lead with just over two minutes left, coach Delynn Keinker was breathing easier as he sent the Bulldogs into a stall.

But Nebraska City, a bunch who "don't know what it means to quit," stormed back with field goals by Al Gibbs and Larry Schreiner following a steal and an Auburn traveling violation.

The game was tied no fewer than 15 times although Nebraska City had opened up a lead of eight points during the second period, but dropped it late in the third.

Not only did Harrah make the final basket, but he was third high for the hosts with 12, behind Rick Budd's 14 and Cohout's 19.

—HENNING LEADS BULLDOGS—

Plainsmen To Test Seward Concordia

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

The Bulldogs are led by Ted Henning, a 6-2 senior guard, who ran into foul trouble early in the first encounter between the two schools, but still managed 11 points before finally fouling out. He scored 33 in Concordia's outing against Sioux Falls, S.D., last Saturday, a game lost by the Bulldogs, 98-91.

Concordia's main threat in the last game with Wesleyan was 6-6 Paul Wiegert, who didn't start, but came off the bench to lead all scorers with 24 points.

Should Henning and Weigert both get hot at the same time tonight, the Plainsmen might feel the warmth under their collars more than in the last encounter.

But the Bulldogs will remember Dwight Tietjen, veteran Plainsman forward, who tallied 23 against them in that game, shooting with deadly accuracy.

Tietjen has been the stalwart of coach Irv Peterson's club throughout the year, but 6-4 Bill Nasl, the team's leading rebounder, skip Peterson, Bob Vasatka, and Roger Nannen provide the Plainsmen with a balanced attack.

Probable starters for Concordia include Henning and 5-10 Norm Brauer at guard, Lyle Matthias and John Roeber, another 6-6 youngster, at forward, and 6-3 Rich Maurer in the center slot.

Western State Trips Chadron In Overtime, 67-65

Gunnison, Colo. (AP) — A junior forward, 6-5 Dave Lantz, tossed in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining of overtime play to lead Western State College to a 67-65 basketball victory over Chadron Friday night.

The game was thrown into overtime when Bob Short of the Eagles tied the game at 59-59 by scoring a field goal with four seconds remaining of regulation play.

In the overtime, Lantz scored all eight points for the Mountaineers including the final two. All were outside shots.

Western overtook Chadron's early game lead and rode into a 9-point lead at the half, the largest margin of the game. The lead bounced back and forth during the second period and was tied 10 times.

Husker Track Team Invades New Mexico

Nebraska opens its 1966 indoor track season Saturday night at the University of New Mexico with a three-way scrap that will also include Oklahoma State University.

Heading the Huskers will be Dave Crook, who just missed winning the Los Angeles Invitational 600 as a late entry while turning in a 1:11.3, and Charlie Greene, the sensational Scarlet sprinter who tied the world 60-yard dash record with a :05.9 in the same meet.

Greene will be going against another of the nation's top sprinters in New Mexico's Bernie Rivers. He's the WAC sprint champ who has turned the 60 in :06.1 and the 100 in :09.4.

New Mexico, WAC champion in 1965, boasts a number of stars such as broad jumper Clarence Robinson, whose 26-8½ ranks as the third best leap in world track history; 15-foot vaulter Dean Caffey; George Scott, a 4:06 miler; a 6-10 high jumper Jeff Brannon and Fred Knight, a sub-:14 high hurdler.

Nebraska entries:

60-yard dash—Charlie Greene, Lynn Headley
440—Ron Lee, Dennis Walker
600—Dave Crook, James Ryan

"They won't pay me $50,000 just to pinch hit," Stuart told Jack Herman of the newspaper by telephone from Boston. "And I'd rather be traded than sit around."

He was referring to the acquisition by the Phillies of Bill White in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals ths winter which made Stuart expendable.

Final Minutes Frantic In Nebraska City Win

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Nebraska City — It's a good thing the officials knew what was going on, because nobody else did during the last 10 seconds of Nebraska City's 63-62 conquest of Auburn.

The evenly-matched teams were deadlocked 62-62, and Byron Orton had just missed two free throws.

Wes Harrah came up with the ball for Nebraska City and was quickly fouled, but bedlam presided, and no one heard the whistle until Deloit Childers had lofted the ball into Auburn's net for what would have been his 32nd point of the evening as the clock ran out.

When things finally quieted a little, Harrah stepped to the line, sank the first of two and it was over, 63-62, before Auburn could get another shot off.

The final, hectic ten seconds typified the entire game.

The Bulldogs and Pioneers had started out even-steven, and with 6:32 left it was still a 50-50 situation.

Then Chris Kohout garnered two free throws and a field goal in quick order for Nebraska City, only to have it matched by Jim Grant for Auburn on the same combination.

Childers, high scorer of the evening with 30, sank three straight field goals in the final minutes, and when little Dave Swinney sank two free throws to give Auburn a four-point lead with just over two minutes left, coach Delynn Keinker was breathing easier as he sent the Bulldogs into a stall.

But Nebraska City, a bunch who "don't know what it means to quit," stormed back with field goals by Al Gibbs and Larry Schreiner following a steal and an Auburn traveling violation.

The game was tied no fewer than 15 times although Nebraska City had opened up a lead of eight points during the second period, but dropped it late in the third.

Harrah "played a dandy," commented Nebraska City coach Oscar Smith, although he felt the team "very eratic and not moving the ball well."

Not only did Harrah make the final basket, but he was third high for the hosts with 12, behind Rick Budd's 14 and Cohout's 19.

Nebraska City 10 21 16 16—63

Nebraska City — Cohout 19, Budd 14, Harrah 12, Gibbs 10, Weber 3, Schreiner 2, Shruewsbury 2, BoGolden 1.
Auburn — Childers 30, Grant 14, Swinney 9, Orton 3, Parker 3, Mayer 2, Layson 1.

—HENNING LEADS BULLDOGS—

Plainsmen To Test Seward Concordia

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

Nebraska Wesleyan travels to Seward tonight to meet Concordia, a team the Plainsmen easily defeated, 100-85, earlier this month in Lincoln.

The Bulldogs are led by Ted Henning, a 6-2 senior guard, who ran into foul trouble early in the first encounter between the two schools, but still managed 11 points before finally fouling out. He scored 33 in Concordia's outing against Sioux Falls, S.D., last Saturday, a game lost by the Bulldogs, 98-91.

Concordia's main threat in the last game with Wesleyan was 6-6 Paul Wiegert, who didn't start, but came off the bench to lead all scorers with 24 points.

Should Henning and Weigert both get hot at the same time tonight, the Plainsmen might feel the warmth under their collars more than in the last encounter.

But the Bulldogs will remember Dwight Tietjen, veteran Plainsman forward, who tallied 23 against them in that game, shooting with deadly accuracy.

Tietjen has been the stalwart of coach Irv Peterson's club throughout the year, but 6-4 Bill Nasi, the team's leading rebounder, skip Peterson, Bob Vasatka, and Roger Nannen provide the Plainsmen with a balanced attack.

Probable starters for Concordia include Henning and 5-10 Norm Brauer at guard, Lyle Matthias and John Roeber, another 6-6 youngster, at forward, and 6-3 Rich Maurer in the center slot.

Western State Trips Chadron In Overtime, 67-65

Gunnison, Colo. (AP) — A junior forward, 6-5 Dave Lantz, tossed in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining of overtime play to lead Western State College to a 67-65 basketball victory over Chadron Friday night.

The game was thrown into overtime when Bob Short of the Eagles tied the game at 59-59 by scoring a field goal with four seconds remaining of regulation play.

In the overtime, Lantz scored all eight points for the Mountaineers including the final two. All were outside shots.

Western overtook Chadron's early game lead and rode into a 9-point lead at the half, the largest margin of the game. The lead bounced back and forth during the second period and was tied 10 times.

Husker Track Team Invades New Mexico

Nebraska opens its 1966 indoor track season Saturday night at the University of New Mexico with a three-way scrap that will also include Oklahoma State University.

Heading the Huskers will be Dave Crook, who just missed winning the Los Angeles Invitational 600 as a late entry while turning in a 1:11.3, and Charlie Greene, the sensational Scarlet sprinter who tied the world 60-yard dash record with a :05.9 in the same meet.

Greene will be going against another of the nation's top sprinters in New Mexico's Bernie Rivers. He's the WAC sprint champ who has turned the 60 in :06.1 and the 100 in :09.4.

New Mexico, WAC champion in 1965, boasts a number of stars such as broad jumper Clarence Robinson, whose 26-8½ ranks as the third best leap in world track history; 15-foot vaulter Dean Caffey; George Scott, a 4:06 miler; a 6-10 high jumper Jeff Brannon and Fred Knight, a sub-:14 high hurdler.

Nebraska entries:

60-yard dash—Charlie Greene, Lynn Headley
440—Ron Lee, Dennis Walker
600—Dave Crook, James Ryan
880—Les Hellbusch, Joe Scott
1,000—Peter Scott

Low Hurdles—Lynn Headley, Ray Harvey
High Hurdles—Lon Sherlock, Ray Harvey
Shot Put—Jim Beltzer
Pole Vault—Ron Fecht
Broad Jump—Gary Neibauer, Dave Janky

"They won't pay me $50,000 just to pinch hit," Stuart told Jack Herman of the newspaper by telephone from Boston. "And I'd rather be traded than sit around."

He was referring to the acquisition by the Phillies of Bill White in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals ths winter which made Stuart expendable.

. . . IN LUCKY INTERNATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY

San Francisco (AP) — Frank Beard, from the Blue Grass country, found San Francisco greens to his liking again Friday when fine putting brought him a four-under-par 67 and a 133 total to lead the $57,000 Lucky International Open golf tournament at the mid-way point.

The 26-year-old pro from Louisville, Ky., who held a one stroke advantage at the end of the first day, increased the lead to three with his second great round—one which included birdie putts on the 16th and 17th holes.

Deadlocked in second place going into Saturday's third round were five pros, including Ken Venturi, the 1964 U.S. Open champion now on a comeback. He learned much of his game at this Harding Park Municipal Golf Course, where his dad runs the pro shop.

Tom Wieskopf of Columbus, Ohio, shot a 68-69 for a 137 total.

Sunny, warm weather again helped pros give par a pasting on the par 36-35 course, extending 6,692 yards on a peninsula edged on two sides by Lake Merced.

Arnold Palmer and two others toured the course in 66. Arnie admitted he was "somewhat frustrated" to start with a 3? and wind up reducing the leader's margin by only one stroke.

Officials slashed the 144-man field to below 70 for the Saturday and Sunday rounds. It took a score of 145 or better for a golfer to stay in and one amateur, Guy Bill of Oakland, Calif. made it with a 72-71 for 143.

Some big names went out, including Don Massengale, who last Sunday stood off a Palmer charge to win an $11,000 prize in the Big Crosby tournament by one stroke.

Former U.S. Open champion Gene Littler had only a 74-72-146 and Canadian Al Balding a 74-73-147.

A half-dozen challenged from the 138 scoring position—Rocky Thompson, George Bayer and Terry Dill with 69s, Joe Taylor with 68 and Al Mengert and Joe Campbell with 70s.

Order Halting Removal Of Rails Remains

An order over-ruling and denying the railroad's motion was entered following a hearing a week ago.

The State Railway Commission brought the original suit in Federal Court against the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), asking that the ICC be required to set aside its order permitting the railroad to remove 22.47 miles of track between Randolph and Bloomfield, and discontinue service on 14.54 miles of Burlington Railroad trackage between Randolph and Laurel.

Van Pelt on Jan. 17 granted the Railway Commission the temporary restraining order against the ICC, but the C&NW, entering the case as an intervenor, subsequently moved that the order be dissolved.

A three-judge Federal Court panel has been named to hear the suit, in which the Railway Commission asks that the ICC be required to reopen hearings on the abandonment issue.

Frank Beard Retains Margin

. . . IN LUCKY INTERNATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY

San Francisco (AP) — Frank Beard, from the Blue Grass country, found San Francisco greens to his liking again Friday when fine putting brought him a four-under-par 67 and a 133 total to lead the $57,000 Lucky International Open golf tournament at the mid-way point.

The 26-year-old pro grom Louisville, Ky., who held a one stroke advantage at the end of the first day, increased the lead to three with his second great round—one which included birdie putts on the 16th and 17th holes.

Deadlocked in second place going into Saturday's third round were five pros, including Ken Venturi, the 1964 U.S. Open champion now on a comeback. He learned much of his game at this Harding Park Municipal Golf Course, where his dad runs the pro shop.

Venturi shot a 68 for his 136 as did Mike Souchak. Raymond Floyd and Dave Ragan put 67s along with opening 69s while Larry Mowry shot a 69 on his second round after opening with 67.

Tom Wieskopf of Columbus, Ohio, shot a 68-69 for a 137 total.

Sunny, warm weather again helped pros give par a pasting on the par 36-35 course, extending 6,692 yards on a peninsula edged on two sides by Lake Merced.

Arnold Palmer and two others toured the course in 66. Arnie admitted he was "somewhat frustrated" to start with a 37 and wind up reducing the leader's margin by only one stroke.

Officials slashed the 144-man field to below 70 for the Saturday and Sunday rounds. It took a score of 145 or better for a golfer to stay in and one amateur, Guy Bill of Oakland, Calif. made it with a 72-71 for 143.

Some big names went out, including Don Massengale, who last Sunday stood off a Palmer charge to win an $11,000 prize in the Big Crosby tournament by one stroke.

Order Halting Removal Of Rails Remains

An order over-ruling and denying the railroad's motion was entered following a hearing a week ago.

The State Railway Commission brought the original suit in Federal Court against the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), asking that the ICC be required to set aside its order permitting the railroad to remove 22.47 miles of track between Randolph and Bloomfield, and discontinue service on 14.54 miles of Burlington Railroad trackage between Randolph and Laurel.

Van Pelt on Jan. 17 granted the Railway Commission the temporary restraining order against the ICC, but the C&NW, entering the case as an intervenor, subsequently moved that the order be dissolved.

A three-judge Federal Court panel has been named to hear the suit, in which the Railway Commission asks that the ICC be required to reopen hearings on the abandonment issue.

Buying Becomes Fairly General In Grain Market

Chicago (AP)—A rally which started slowly and cautiously developed into a fairly general surge of buying near the close of the grain futures market Friday and nearly all commodities finished firm to strong.

Corn was the only loser, off small fractions on four of the five deliveries. Soybeans spurted into gains of 4 cents or more on most of the old crop contracts, rye added a cent or more and wheat about a cent.

Nearly all contracts finished at or near their highs of the day. However, the advance fell short of full recovery of earlier losses in the week.

At the close, wheat was ⅝-1⅛ cents a bushel higher, March $1.68⅜-½; corn ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, March $1.29¼-⅛; oats ¼-½ higher, March 72 cents; rye 1 to 2 cents higher, March $1.34½; soybeans 1¼-4⅜ higher, March $2.88⅜-½.

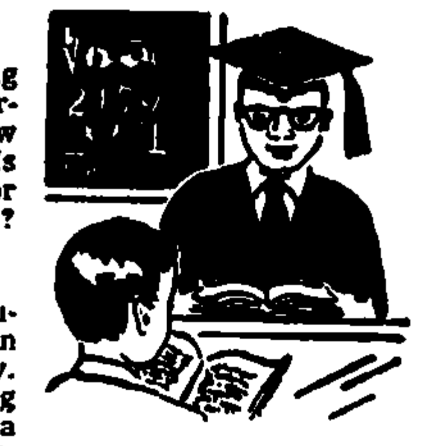
NASON ON EDUCATION:

Overlearning Desirable In Many Situations

By DR. LESLIE J. NASON



Dear Dr. Nason:

Not satisfied with talking about dropouts and underachievers, educators are now referring to overlearning. Is it possible to overlearn or what is meant by this term?

T. N., Los Angeles

Answer:

Strictly speaking, the educators are talking about an adequate degree of mastery. There is really no such thing as overlearning. This is a term used to describe the situation is which a student's response is made automatically rather than through conscious choice. He doesn't have to stop and think.

Overlearning should be attained in many situations. For example, this degree of learning should take place in multiplication tables in arithmetic. A child should practice until he knows the answer, without thinking. Only with this degree of mastery can he free his mind for solving more complex problems, such as long division.

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our son is deciding between two colleges. He is leaving the final choice to us. We find both colleges have excellent accreditation, academic standards, etc. At one college, he would have to board. He could commute to the other. What benefits and disadvantages do you get from either or both?

Mrs. N.G.E., Baldwin, N.Y.

Answer:

Boarding is more expensive than commuting. Your son, as a college commuter, would need to exercise self-discipline and concentrate on his college work without allowing his home and community contacts to interfere excessively. Does he have the self-discipline required? Does he need the experience of getting away from home?

If you cannot make the decision yourself, get counseling from someone who knows your son, the family set-up and the two colleges under consideration. There is no simple "Yes" or "No" answer.

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our 11th-grade son complains that he is not able to read the textbook provided in mathematics. Since his reading comprehension scores have always been above average, we feel that in this case it just might be the fault of the textbook rather than the boy.

T. N., San Diego, Calif.

Answer:

Students should be able to read and to understand the materials presented in textbooks. If they cannot, the instructor should search out the cause. Your son may lack the necessary background for the course. Or the teacher may be unaware that his class presentation does not provide his students with enough grasp of the course to understand the new materials being presented.

The teacher may be able to give your son some pointers as to a better way to study mathematics.

Conviction In '64 Shooting Is Affirmed

The State Supreme Court affirmed Friday the conviction of John Hizel Jr. of Mitchell, serving a life term in the State Penitentiary for second degree murder.

A Scotts Bluff District Court jury found him guilty in the Oct. 11, 1964, shooting of Albert E. Hendren on a county road near Mitchell following an argument.

The high court declared the jury "could properly conclude the defendant shot the deceased purposely and maliciously" although the evidence was somewhat conflicting.

In other rulings Friday the court:

—Affirmed a Cherry District Court dismissal of an appeal seeking reversal of the Cherry County Board's denial of a petition for incorporation of the Village of Valentine Motel.

The district court had ruled that the county board's action was ministerial rather than judicial in nature and thus could not be reviewed by the courts.

Fifty-five residents of the unincorporated village, located near Valentine, petitioned the county board to approve the proposed incorporation of the village on Jan. 1, 1962.

—Affirmed in part and reversed in part a Douglas District Court declaratory judgment to determine coverages afforded MacDowell and his son, Scott, by their insurance policies with three companies.

The case stemmed from a hunting accident in December, 1961, in which Scott Campbell allegedly shot Joseph M. Broecks Jr.

—Affirmed a Holt District Court decision granting the divorce petition of Mrs. Shirley Reed but ordered Edward O. Reed to pay $2,500 in alimony rather than the $1,300 awarded by the lower court.

Aid Programs For Children Encouraged

Gov. Frank Morrison and the state president of the Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA) announced plans Friday for a statewide effort to encourage schools to sponsor anti-poverty programs to aid pre-school children from low-income families.

Mrs. William Nichol of Scottsbluff said she has asked the 20 local PTA councils to sponsor area information meetings on the "Project Head Start" programs.

She said PTA members are willing to assist schools in surveying the local needs for the pre-school programs.

Mrs. Nichol said one area meeting has already been held, at Bellevue, and others are now being planned for Blair, South Sioux City, Fremont and Scottsbluff.

The governor said he believes school sponsorship of Project Head Start programs, designed to enrich the cultural and educational experiences of disadvantaged children provides for a better coordinated effort.

Project Head Start programs were sponsored last summer in Omaha, Lincoln, Grand Island, Kearney, Gordon and Niobrara. Year-round programs are scheduled to be established in Omaha and Lincoln.

State Technical Assistance Agency Director Ron Jensen said the deadline for submitting applications for programs for this summer is April 1. The federal government pays 90% of the costs of Project Head Start programs.

Annual Meeting On Community Improvement Set

Gov. Frank Morrison said Friday the latest in community development techniques will be discussed at his annual conference on community betterment and industrial development Feb. 10 in Kearney.

Stuart P. Walsh, president of Development Planning Associates Inc. of San Francisco, will be the featured luncheon speaker at the conference, which gets under way at 9 a.m. at Kearney State College.

Morrison said the program is designed "to let community developers know what is taking place in the state in industrial development and community betterment and to answer specific questions in these two areas."

Stock Market's Loss Is Sizable

New York (AP) — After two days of irregularity the stock market took a fairly severe loss Friday. Trading was active.

Volume was 9 million shares compared with 8.98 million Thursday.

The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 5.01 to 985.35. The average has been clinging above the 990 level after a futile attempt to reach the psychologically important 1,000 mark in the past couple of weeks.

Doubt about the course of hostilities in Viet Nam accompanied a fairly general decline among the aerospace defense issues. These have been among the strongest groups.

All Big Three motors declined but American Motors advanced 1 to 9⅞ on 275,000 shares.

Seven of the 15 most active stocks rose, six fell and Brunswick was unchanged at 11¾. American Telephone held at its 1965-66 low of 60 most of the day then closed with a gain of ⅛ at 60⅛.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 4.15 million shares compared with 3.99 million Thursday.

Buying Becomes Fairly General In Grain Market

Chicago (AP)—A rally which started slowly and cautiously developed into a fairly general surge of buying near the close of the grain futures market Friday and nearly all commodities finished firm to strong.

Corn was the only loser, off small fractions on four of the five deliveries. Soybeans spurted into gains of 4 cents or more on most of the old crop contracts, rye added a cent or more and wheat about a cent.

Nearly all contracts finished at or near their highs of the day. However, the advance fell short of full recovery of earlier losses in the week.

At the close, wheat was ⅝-1⅛ cents a bushel higher, March $1.68⅜-½; corn ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, March $1.29¼-⅛; oats ¼-½ higher, March 72 cents; rye 1 to 2 cents higher, March $1.34½; soybeans 1¾-4⅜ higher, March $2.88⅜-⅛.

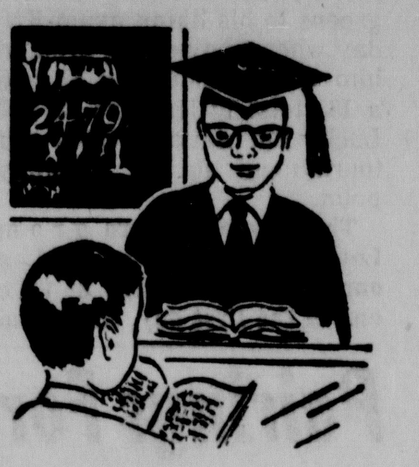
NASON ON EDUCATION:

Overlearning Desirable In Many Situations

By DR. LESLIE J. NASON



Dear Dr. Nason:

Not satisfied with talking about dropouts and underachievers, educators are now referring to overlearning. Is it possible to overlearn or what is meant by this term?

T. N., Los Angeles

Answer:

Strictly speaking, the educators are talking about an adequate degree of mastery. There is really no such thing as overlearning. This is a term used to describe the situation is which a student's response is made automatically rather than through conscious choice. He doesn't have to stop and think.

Overlearning should be attained in many situations. For example, this degree of learning should take place in multiplication tables in arithmetic. A child should practice until he knows the answer, without thinking. Only with this degree of mastery can he free his mind for solving more complex problems, such as long division.

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our son is deciding between two colleges. He is leaving the final choice to us. We find both colleges have excellent accreditation, academic standards, etc. At one college, he would have to board. He could commute to the other. What benefits and disadvantages do you get from either or both?

Mrs. N.G.E., Baldwin, N.Y.

Answer:

Boarding is more expensive than commuting. Your son, as a college commuter, would need to exercise self-discipline and concentrate on his college work without allowing his home and community contacts to interfere excessively. Does he have the self-discipline required? Does he need the experience of getting away from home?

If you cannot make the decision yourself, get counseling from someone who knows your son, the family set-up and the two colleges under consideration. There is no simple "Yes" or "No" answer.

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our 11th-grade son complains that he is not able to read the textbook provided in mathematics. Since his reading comprehension scores have always been above average, we feel that in this case it just might be the fault of the textbook rather than the boy.

T. N., San Diego, Calif.

Answer:

Students should be able to read and to understand the materials presented in textbooks. If they cannot, the instructor should search out the cause. Your son may lack the necessary background for the course. Or the teacher may be unaware that his class presentation does not provide his students with enough grasp of the course to understand the new materials being presented.

The teacher may be able to give your son some pointers as to a better way to study mathematics.

Conviction In '64 Shooting Is Affirmed

The State Supreme Court affirmed Friday the conviction of John Hizel Jr. of Mitchell, serving a life term in the State Penitentiary for second degree murder.

A Scotts Bluff District Court jury found him guilty in the Oct. 11, 1964, shooting of Albert E. Hendren on a county road near Mitchell following an argument.

Hizel's attorneys had contended Hizel shot Hendren in self defense and should have been charged with manslaughter.

The high court declared the jury "could properly conclude the defendant shot the deceased purposely and maliciously" although the evidence was somewhat conflicting.

In other rulings Friday the court:

—Affirmed a Cherry District Court dismissal of an appeal seeking reversal of the Cherry County Board's denial of a petition for incorporation of the Village of Valentine Motel.

The district court had ruled that the county board's action was ministerial rather than judicial in nature and thus could not be reviewed by the courts.

Fifty-five residents of the unincorporated village, located near Valentine, petitioned the county board to approve the proposed incorporation of the village on Jan. 1, 1962.

—Affirmed in part and reversed in part a Douglas District Court declaratory judgment to determine coverages afforded MacDowell and his son, Scott, by their insurance policies with three companies.

The case stemmed from a hunting accident in December, 1961, in which Scott Campbell allegedly shot Joseph M. Brueeks Jr.

—Affirmed a Holt District Court decision granting the divorce petition of Mrs. Shirley Read but ordered Edward O. Read to pay $2,500 in alimony rather than the $1,500 awarded by the lower court.

Aid Programs For Children Encouraged

Gov. Frank Morrison and the state president of the Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA) announced plans Friday for a statewide effort to encourage schools to sponsor anti-poverty programs to aid pre-school children from low-income families.

Mrs. William Nichol of Scottsbluff said she has asked the 20 local PTA councils to sponsor area information meetings on the "Project Head Start" programs.

She said PTA members are willing to assist schools in surveying the local needs for the pre-school programs.

Mrs. Nichol said one area meeting has already been held, at Bellevue, and others are now being planned for Blair, South Sioux City, Fremont and Scottsbluff.

The governor said he believes school sponsorship of Project Head Start programs, designed to enrich the cultural and educational experiences of disadvantaged children provides for a better coordinated effort.

Project Head Start programs were sponsored last summer in Omaha, Lincoln, Grand Island, Kearney, Gordon and Niobrara. Year-round programs are scheduled to be established in Omaha and Lincoln.

State Technical Assistance Agency Director Ron Jensen said the deadline for submitting applications for programs for this summer is April 1. The federal government pays 90% of the costs of Project Head Start programs.

Annual Meeting On Community Improvement Set

Gov. Frank Morrison said Friday the latest in community development techniques will be discussed at his annual conference on community betterment and industrial development Feb. 10 in Kearney.

Stuart P. Walsh, president of Development Planning Associates Inc. of San Francisco, will be the featured luncheon speaker at the conference, which gets under way at 9 a.m. at Kearney State College.

Morrison said the program is designed "to let community developers know what is taking place in the state in industrial development and community betterment and to answer specific questions in these two areas."

Lincoln Bank South Deposits Top $1 Million

Deposits at Lincoln Bank South exceeded $1 million on Dec. 31, 1965, President Glenn Yaussi reported to stockholders Friday. Assets on that date totalled $1,346,906.

"These figures are almost double what we expected after eight months," Yaussi stated. He added that the totals far exceeded the projections presented to the State Banking Department when the bank's charter was obtained.

Roger Gohde, vice president in charge of operations, informed stockholders that the bank now has 800 accounts and 90 loan customers.

In other action Gohde was elected to the board of directors. Directors re-elected are Gene C. Eaton, Donald E. Endacott, Roger T. Larson, J. Phillip Mahoney, Gates Minnick, Robert E. Peterson, Paul Schorr III, G. M. Singleton, Philip C. Sorensen, Herbert R. Walt, E. M. Weaver Jr., Myron Weil, Pace Woods II and Yaussi.

Central Building, Loan Assets Rose By Half Million

Folsom called 1965 another good year for the company and said he anticipates the same in 1966.

Folsom was re-elected to the board of directors, joining hold-over members Charles W. Watts, Burton W. Folsom, L. R. Ricketts and W. W. Folsom.

Wayne State Parking Ramp Plan Viewed

The State Normal Board Friday viewed an architect's concept of a three-ramp parking facility for the Wayne State College campus.

Architect John Savage of Omaha estimated a 360-car facility would cost $680,000, and one for 500 cars $950,000.

A feasibility study for financing the future project with revenue bonds is under way, but no report is anticipated for several months, the board was advised.

Shupe Elected

The board elected Dr. Gordon W. Shupe of Wayne as its chairman for 1966. He succeeds Bernard M. Spencer of Nebraska City.

James M. Knapp of Kearney was elected vice chairman and E. Albin Larson was reappointed secretary.

In other action, the board:

—Approved purchase of seven properties adjoining the Kearney State College campus for $85,500 from surplus revenue bond funds.

Bid Date Set

—Set the next board meeting for March 7 with subsequent meetings to be scheduled at six-week intervals.

Third Man Found Guilty In Break-In

The third man involved in the Nov. 18, 1963, break-in at the VFW Club at 3900 Cornhusker was found guilty of burglary by a Lancaster District Court jury.

Robert Stroh, 31, who had pleaded innocent, was the last of the three to be tried by jury and found guilty in connection with the incident.

The other two, Edwin Galasso, 31, and David Stroh, 18, both of Denver, Colo., were arrested when Lancaster Deputy Sheriff Louis Harroun surprised them by staking out the club after the manager had reported evidence that someone had set up the club for a break-in after business hours.

Lincoln Bank South Deposits Top $1 Million

Deposits at Lincoln Bank South exceeded $1 million on Dec. 31, 1965, President Glenn Yaussi reported to stockholders Friday. Assets on that date totalled $1,346,906.

"These figures are almost double what we expected after eight months," Yaussi stated. He added that the totals far exceeded the projections presented to the State Banking Department when the bank's charter was obtained.

Roger Gohde, vice president in charge of operations, informed stockholders that the bank now has 800 accounts and 90 loan customers.

In other action Gohde was elected to the board of directors. Directors re-elected are Gene C. Eaton, Donald E. Endacott, Roger T. Larson, J. Phillip Mahoney, Gates Minnick, Robert E. Peterson, Paul Schorr III, G. M. Singleton, Philip C. Sorensen, Herbert R. Walt, E. M. Weaver Jr., Myron Weil, Pace Woods II and Yaussi.

Central Building, Loan Assets Rose By Half Million

Folsom called 1965 another good year for the company and said he anticipates the same in 1966.

Wayne State Parking Ramp Plan Viewed

The State Normal Board Friday viewed an architect's concept of a three-ramp parking facility for the Wayne State College campus.

Architect John Savage of Omaha estimated a 360-car facility would cost $680,000, and one for 500 cars $950,000.

A feasibility study for financing the future project with revenue bonds is under way, but no report is anticipated for several months, the board was advised.

Shupe Elected

The board elected Dr. Gordon W. Shupe of Wayne as its chairman for 1966. He succeeds Bernard M. Spencer of Nebraska City.

James M. Knapp of Kearney was elected vice chairman and E. Albin Larson was reappointed secretary.

In other action, the board:

—Approved purchase of seven properties adjoining the Kearney State College campus for $85,500 from surplus revenue bond funds.

Bid Date Set

—Approved a Feb. 2 bid date for a $1.8 million revenue bond issue for a new dormitory at Peru State College.

—Set the next board meeting for March 7 with subsequent meetings to be scheduled at six-week intervals.

Third Man Found Guilty In Break-In

Robert Stroh, 31, who had pleaded innocent, was the last of the three to be tried by jury and found guilty in connection with the incident.

The other two, Edwin Galasso, 31, and David Stroh, 18, both of Denver, Colo., were arrested when Lancaster Deputy Sheriff Louis Harroun surprised them by staking out the club after the manager had reported evidence that someone had set up the club for a break-in after business hours.
